BUSINESS EDUCATION

Gradually the authorities in our educational matters are coming to appreciate the value of a thorough business education. It is now seen that a knowledge of business methods and customs is of more practical value to the average young person than a full course in the dead languages or even higher mathematics. The graduates of the well known Detroit Business University, which for more than 60 years has been giving a splendid training for business pursuits have been active in advancing the claims of business education and of this particular school. This has much to do with the fact that this institution is everywhere regarded as the pioneer and the par excellence today among business training schools.

HOME MAKING

The first step in buying or building a home is the Savings Account. Everybody should have a home of his own. A savings account with this bank, with regular deposits from the income, will provide the money for the first payment upon one. The sooner you begin, the sooner you will live in your own home.

FIRE DAMAGE AT ROYAL OAK

Hustling Little Town Suffers a Loss of More Than $30,000

A big fire swept Royal Oak last Sunday night which made a good sized hole in the business district and destroyed property worth upwards of $30,000. It originated in the oven room of Goodfellow's bakery and was discovered by some young people in a nearby house. An alarm was quickly given and the whole town turned out to fight the flames which spread with great rapidity. The night telephone operator, Miss Edna Kennedy, bravely stuck to her post at the switchboard sending out calls for help and arousing the inhabitants until she fell unconscious from the effects of smoke and was carried out by a young man who had rushed up stairs to warn her of the danger.

The village had no fire protection and bucket brigades were hastily formed, but could do little to stop the flames. The fire burned itself out when it could reach no more buildings. While only a half dozen buildings were destroyed they were some of the best in the village and the loss was quite heavy.

An Old Resident Gone

The death of John Graham, one of Oakland county's most prosperous farmers occurred last Saturday morning at an early hour at his home at North Farmington.

His illness, which had been of short duration was pneumonia, and was so severe that he only survived a few days from the time he was first taken ill.

The funeral was held on Tuesday at the home, the Rev. W. G. Nixon officiating, and burial was in North Farmington cemetery.

Mr. Graham was 69 years of age and was born in County Antrim, Ireland. He was married to Miss Ellen McCaughan in the old country 42 years ago and came to this country a year later and settled in Oakland county. The farm where he died was purchased by him 29 years ago. Eight children, besides the devoted wife, survive viz., Mrs. Mary Carey, Mrs. Sarah Cairn, Mrs. Jennie Grace and Thomas and John of Farmington, Mrs. Anna Marshall of Tuttle, Okla., and Mrs. Rosetta Putnam of Novi.

Pontiac Very Much Alive

A great civic revival has struck Pontiac and the citizens have joined hands for a great forward movement. They have organized. That means that they are after and will get results. Pontiac is a wide-awake little city. It has been doing well for the past few years, but the progressive spirits among the business men are alive to the benefits of organization. A town is what the people make it and it is up to them to forge ahead or sleep away their opportunities. The great industries of the country have been made great by organization and system. Detroit is growing more rapidly than any other city in the world because they have awakened to their possibilities and organized a board of commerce that is accomplishing things that is the wonder of the world.

This little town can do something if the people will unite and pull together. There are many things that can be added to the industries of the village if only there is a unanimity of feeling and an organized effort is made. Only we must get together and pull together for the common good.

The Ladies' Literary Club

The beautiful weather brought out a large number of ladies on Wednesday afternoon, club day, Mrs. Flora Hendryx entertaining. The roll was responded by 21 ladies with a quotation from an Italian author.

Mrs. Irish, delegate to the County Federation of Woman's clubs, a detailed report of that meeting held October 24, at Rochester. Mrs. Hutton also gave a very interesting report of the State Federation held at Saginaw last month. Owing to the length of these reports the regular program was not completed.

Mrs. Imogene Bicking gave an interesting account of "Italy's Past and Present Social Condition."

Mrs. Hendryx read a paper on the "History of the Renaissance." Mrs. Bradley's paper was deferred until another meeting.

The club takes pleasure in acknowledging a delightful afternoon with the Northville Woman's club Nov. 15, on "Reciprocity Day." Mrs. R. H. Ashbaugh, president of the Detroit Federation of Woman's clubs, gave an address on the Biennial at San Francisco in June. Music was furnished by Mrs. Strong and one of her pupils. At the close of the program a buffet luncheon was served by the ladies of the club.

On Dec. 4, Mrs. Irish, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Hatten will entertain the local club at an especially prepared program.

Crawford Loses His Wallet

While in Redford last Saturday M. T. Crawford lost his pocket book containing about $40. He was in the lumber yards to get a few boards and from there went to a store on Grand River avenue and thinks it slipped out of his pocket at either of these places or between the two. A reward is offered for its return.

Oakland County Chicken Show

The premium list of the ninth annual show of the Oakland County Poultry Breeders' association is out and it is a very complete work. The show this year is named the "Big Silver Cup Show" and will be held Dec. 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 at the opera house in Pontiac. The entries close Dec. 2.

Announcement Greetings

While I am not prepared to announce my engagement to the blue-eyed, golden-haired goddess, the Postoffice, I do say to the Democrats of Farmington, that I do want to keep company with her if she gives me the least encouragement. Yours truly,

Was Known in This Section

The death of William Perry Farmington last Friday removed from the force one of Detroit's best known and most popular policemen.

For years he had been detailed at the police court and on the bank squad and was held in high esteem by the leading men in financial and other circles in the city.

He joined the force in 1877 and was first stationed on Grotier avenue. He was off the service for a time, but again returned and in all served 28 years in the department.

He was known in this section and his father, R. B. Farmington, lives at Redford. He was 56 years old and leaves a wife and one son besides several brothers and sisters.
