TRITONS DEFEATED BY FORDSON

Fordson High School gave Farmington its fourth set-back of the year in a one-sided battle 26 to 10.

For some unknown reason the Tritons could not get its defense clicking and Fordson took advantage of the breaks.

Farmington started a rally in the third quarter which ended after Fendt and Drake dropped baskets from scrimmage and Fordson got a charity toss.

The score at the half was Fordson 13, F. H. S. 4. The Farmington lineup:

Cox, I.; Maas, C.; Cairns, F.; Drake, G.; Fendt, F.; Howarth, G.

FARMINGTON GIRLS DEFEAT NORTHVILLE 32-16

The Farmington girls came through with the second consecutive victory by defeating Northville Friday night on the home floor.

The game was featured by good passing on the part of the Farmington girls and also the clever work of the forwards in sinking field goals.

Farmington took the lead early in the game and held it throughout the entire game. The score at the end of the half was 23 and 3 in favor of F. H. S.

The lineups were as follows:

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

There were more seniors with 5A's on the Honor Roll last month than any other class.

Harford Wiley hoofs it to band practice three times a week.

Viola Bachelor has deserted her daily ride on the F. H. S. bus.

Baldy Chamberlain is back in school after his illness.

The seniors have been working earnestly collecting papers.

The juniors have big prospects in the future.

Bob Gaff is a mechanic.

Jack Jylen is going to take up forestry.

SECOND TEAM DEFEATED BY PONTIAC

A strong Pontiac team defeated the Triton second team at Saturday night.

Unaccustomed to the large gym the Tritons failed to hit the loop until the second half when Turner made the only field goal for the Tritons. The other points were made by Lancaster and Catherman, the latter making one and the former making two.

PERSONAL NOTES

Johnny Lapham returned to school Monday after being absent because of illness.

In the sewing classes the Advanced Class will begin to make felt hats next week; the Second Year Class will start making dresses and the First Year Class will start on pajamas.

Robert Cecil has entered the Farmington High School and is a member of the Sophomore class.

Lera Shiller, a new attendant, is still confined to her home.

Mary Yeager of the Freshman class has a case of tonsillitis.

Doris Schroeder has remained from school since New Year's, because of an attack of tonsillitis.

The semester exams come on Thursday and Friday January 23 and 24th.

JOKES BY SMITH

Jim: So you graduated from a barber's college. What was the college yell?

EIGHTH GRADE HONOR ROLL

The eight pupils of the Eighth grade who are on the December Honor Roll are: Betty Adams, Carol Harger, Magdalena Himmelsbach, Marjorie Hunt, Harry Lapham, Emily Maas, Dorothy McCulley, Jack Palmer.

Every month the Honor Roll is put on the board in some clever design, which goes with the month.

RESOLUTIONS

We're making resolutions. Of the things we're going to do in the new year coming round: When we'll start our page anew. We're going to mind our elders. Treat our friends better than before.

We're going to keep our tongue controlled. And not be cross any more. Oh, yes, we're making resolutions.

And we're going to keep them, too. These resolutions that we make Of things we're going to do. —Marguerite Wilmet.

Accident Victim Is Reported Improved

Durward Lewis, 63 years old, of Farmington, is rapidly recovering from injuries suffered ten days ago when he was struck by a skidding automobile on Grand River avenue west of Farmington.

Mr. Lewis suffered a broken wrist, ankle and shoulder, but his skull is not fractured as was at first feared. He is still confined to Receiving Hospital in Redford.

Oaklands Hills Orchards Still On Route One

An error which might appear of considerable consequence to Farmington rural mail patrons was made last week in announcement of the change by which delivery will be made to boxes in front of the houses in Oakland Hills Orchards and part of Clarencville. In the paragraph which referred to Oakland Hills Orchards, it was stated that "the carrier on Route Two, A. W. Bidwell," would serve that area.

Mr. Bidwell is carrier on Route One, and Oakland Hills Orchards will remain on that Route. The paragraph should have read as follows:

The carrier on Route One, A. W. Bidwell, will serve the greater portion of the Oakland Hills Orchards by leaving the present route at 13-Mile road and Greening boulevard, going south one

HOME IS SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Regular Meeting Held At Home Of Mrs. Harrison Johnson; Next Meeting Jan. 21

A regular meeting of the Farmington Women's club was held Wednesday afternoon, January 7, at the home of Mrs. Harrison Johnson.

After a brief business session, Mrs. Switzer assumed charge of the program. The topics of the day were "Manners in the Home," "Home Life" and "Health in the Home."

An interesting paper, "The Sanctity of the American Home" prepared by Mrs. Anna Brown was read by Mrs. Josephine McGee.

Mrs. Nola Switzer gave vivid word pictures of typical Chinese, Japanese, Hindu and French homes.

Mrs. Lee Doyle very interestingly presented the subject "Health in the Home."

The next meeting will be held at the M. E. Community Hall on January 21 and is an open meeting. Members are urged to bring guests as the J. L. Hudson Co. is providing the lecture. The subject, "Furnishings Plus Personalities" will prove a very interesting one to all.

mile to 12-Mile road, thence west to Orchard Lake road and north to 13-Mile road, resuming his regular line of travel.
