FAMOUS BIRTHDAYS TO BE DISCUSSED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Next Meeting Wednesday, At The Home of Mrs. T. H. McGee

The next meeting of the Farmington Woman's Club will be held Wednesday, February 18 at the home of Mrs. T. H. McGee. The subject of discussion will be, "Famous Birthdays and Impersonations." The program will be in charge of Mrs. M. B. Pierce, and Mrs. C. W. Wilber.

With a fine attendance, Farmington Woman's club enjoyed an outstanding surprise in the message brought by Mrs. Flora Mercer Brennan at the last regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Henry Pauline, last Wednesday.

The speaker, who is the wife of Dr. Brennan, psychiatrist of the Northville Training School, brought out clearly the emphasis that federal, state and local authorities are placing on child welfare, the aim being to train parents to lead the childish view of material, immediate, sensuous satisfactions along the cycle to the delayed, ethical and spiritual rewards of adult activities.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Spencer Heene, Mrs. R. Fleming and Mrs. M. Pettibone.
