hapers. A number of the boys were at the various father and son ban-quets. The girls ended their basketquets.

The girls ended their basket-ball season by defeating. Belle-ville Tuesdary afternoon in the home gym. This makes their eighth victory of the season with only one defeat. The game was featured by ex-cellent passing and guarding on the part of the Farmington girls. The forwards also executed great skill in shooting baskets. The score at the end of the half was 184 in Farmington's favor.

The score at the end of the nait was 184 in Farmington's favor. Lineup: Forwards, Lamb, Mur-hy and Owens; guards, Krumm, (Capt.), and Shoen; centers, Ja-cobs, Johnson and Owens.

HLY The Hi-Y club of Farmington were guests of the Northern Y. M. C. A., Friday. Billiaries and pfng-pong were played after which everyone re-treated to the gyms. The group divided into two sides and played yolley ball, swat, sport and the dragon. After playing in the gym the members retreated to the swim-ming pool for a dip. A relay race was held in which Farmington took first place against heavy com petition, Keego Harbor, Royal Oak, Millord, and Rochester be-ing represented.

CHIEF CLEARSKY VISITS THE FARMINGTON SCHOOL

Chief Clearsky, the chief of the Chief Clearsky, the chief of the Irofuois Indians, visited the Farm ington grade and high schools. He gave a talk of the history of the Undian tribes and also described their different habits of living. He also answered all questions based on Indian life. Five cents was charged for admission into the assembly room to hear the talk. After the talk he sold beads so d other Iodian trinkets to the and other Indian trinkets to the school children.
