TRITONS RESERVES BEATEN

Ann Arbor Y. M. C. A. reserves defeated the Tritons reserves in the last game of the season, Friday night, by the score of 12-9. Ann Arbor's accurate passing and strong defense enabled them to control the ball and make points whenever necessary. The score at the end of the half was 3-2. Ann Arbor's favor.

F. H. S. DEFEATS Y. M. C. A.

The Tritons basketballers defeated Y. M. C. A. of Ann Arbor in a fast game thriller, Friday night. F. H. S. new combination began to work for the first time, and as the half ended F. H. S. led by 9 points. The second half was a little easier as the Tritons broke through the Y. M. C. A.'s defense for baskets. Maas starred for Farmington and also led his men in points, having 10 to his credit. Nicholson and Fensom played a good game. Shultz, J. led Ann Arbor by scoring 9 points.

The lineup:

Maas, c; Fendt, J.; Nicholson, J.; Howarth, G.; Drake, G.; Lancaster for Howarth, Wendt, fall for Maas, Turner for Fendt, Catherman for Nicholson.

TRACK PROSPECTS

Track prospects at F. H. S. this year look bright.

The outstanding men in the following events are as follows: Shot put, Howarth, javelin, Glynn, half mile, Nicholson, mile, Gaff, dashes, Fendt. All look capable of upholding the Triton standard.

With a little training, determination and plenty of practice, this year's team will go a long way toward winning the league championship.
