East Lansing.—A concerted effort on the part of the bankers of Michigan to aid in bringing the business of farming to a better economic state is to be planned at a meeting which will be attended by bankers, farmers, county agricultural agents, and members of the staff of Michigan State College at that institution May 27.

TRITONS RALLY IN LAST INNING TO BEAT NORTHVILLE

Three Runs In Seventh Inning Gives Farmington High Close Verdict, 10-9

Flashing a three run rally in their final turn at bat, Farmington High School won their third league game of the season Thursday afternoon, defeating Northville High School, 10 to 9 in a game played here.

Going into the final inning, the Tritons were leading 7 to 4. In the seventh Northville staged a determined rally tallying five times to take the lead 7 to 4. With apparent defeat facing them, Farmington pulled the game out of fire on three hits, two passes and a hit.

Ray Fendt, who has hurled all five league encounters for Farmington, went the route for the Tritons, and hurled a steady brand of ball until the final stanza.

Gasoline Pumped From Well Causes A Fire

Gasoline pumped from a well—just the result of a leak—and somebody's curiosity in Clarenceville.

Last winter gasoline leaked into a well at the garage building owned by the Shaw family on the south side of Grand River avenue near Cambridge street in Clarenceville. Tuesday afternoon the well was pumped out to rid it of the gasoline.

The mixture from the well trickled toward the road. A match or cigarette stub met the fluid—and it "did its stuff." The flames followed the stream back to the pump, sending a huge cloud of smoke into the sky.

Farmington fireman answered the alarm, but the fire was over almost as soon as it began.

Seek To Enter Walled Lake School District

For sometime an effort has been made by the residents of the Hickory Hill Golf and Country Club community to have their property made a part of the Walled Lake Consolidated District, No. 1, Fractional, Township of Commerce.

Residents of this section state that they were under the impression that this property was in Walled Lake School district when they purchased their property there, but found out later it was in the Wixom district. This makes a walk of about three miles for children who live in the subdivision, to the Wixom school, unless they come to the Walled Lake school and pay tuition, it is said.

It is reported one family will have to pay nearly $400 tuition next year to get their children to this school.

A hearing was heard some time ago before four Township boards involved in the Walled Lake consolidated district, but the petition of the residents was denied. They appealed to the Oakland County School Commissioner. A hearing was held Saturday at Pontiac but was continued until May 22 on the petition of the attorney of the Wixom School District, A. L. Moore, who maintained the petitions might not be legal.

The Board of Education of the Walled Lake Consolidated School have stated their willingness to accept the new district, despite the fact that the taxable lands, which would thereby be obtained, would not render enough tax money to pay the expenses of the additional children of that district would require, Supt. H. E. Nesman said. Because of the desire to afford the children of the Hickory Hill district the advantages of the more modern and better equipped Walled Lake school, the Walled Lake Consolidated School board is willing to accept the new district, Supt. Nesman said. All five members of the Walled Lake School Board and Supt. H. E. Nesman attended the hearing last Friday. They were present only in an advisory capacity, to give information about their school, and not because the Board is involved in the legal procedure in any way. The matter now rests entirely with the Circuit Court Commissioner and School Commissioner.

The plea of the residents of the district seeking admission into the Walled Lake territory is based on the limited advantages afforded by the Wixom school, on the fact that the Walled Lake school has now gone right to the homes of the petitioners and would not increase the mileage.
