

Davidsons Wed By Candlelight

Jennifer Anne Jones became the bride of Dennis Edward Davidson in a recent double-ring candlelight service in the First United Presbyterian Church, Plymouth. Dr. Henry J. Walsh heard the couple's vows.

Parents of the newlywed pair are Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Jones of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. F.E. Davidson of Westland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected an A-line skimmer gown with a wedding-band collar and bell sleeves banded with reverse satin. Her gown was accented by a chapel-length Watteau train and her formal-length mantilla veil of imported silk illusion was edged with velvet Venice lace and accented with lace appliques.

She carried a cascade of white roses and ivy.

THE BRIDE's sister, Janice Jones, was her maid of honor. She wore an empire gown of moss green silk linen, trimmed with velvet ribbon and white Venice lace, and carried a colonial bouquet of roses and autumn mums.

Her bridesmaids included her sister, Laura Jones, Alice Wellman, Malinda Stevens, Ruth Walkmore and Joanne Willis. Their gowns were similar to the honor attendant's.

Lisa Jones, a sister of the bride, and Laura Nickels, a cousin of the groom, were flower girls, and the bridegroom's cousin, Bill Nickels, was the ring bearer.

They will make their home in Westland.
