

Depicts History

The Colonial national monument, which was established December 30, 1930, includes three important areas in Colonial history. The first is Jamestown, first permanent English settlement in the New World. The second is Williamsburg, an interesting old city where transpired many events of great import in the days when Virginia was a colony. Third of the areas is Yorktown, the battle site where the final military defeat of the British forces under Lord Cornwallis.
