WALLED LAKE FIVE BEATS FARMINGTON IN CLOSE CONTESTS

Farmington Girls Secure Only Victory For Visiting Cagers Over Walled Lake

An exciting exhibition of skill and sportsmanship was exhibited at Walled Lake last Friday, December 4, when the Walled Lake and Farmington teams played three basketball games. The boys reserve teams played first, and it proved necessary to carry the game an extra five minutes to decide the victors. Walled Lake won 10-8 over its rivals.

This was followed by the girls' first team game, in which the Farmington girls proved their mettle, defeating their opponents, 18-12.

Walled Lake Students Hear Interesting Lecture

(By Robert Gaffney) The students at Walled Lake high school were treated to an interesting program Wednesday given by Mr. Hart, noted traveler and lecturer, and Mrs. Hart.

Mrs. Hart adopted the role of a reporter interviewing George Washington. The role of George Washington was ably portrayed by Mr. Hart, who, dressed in colonial costume spoke the phrases that Washington actually spoke in the dialect peculiar to that day and gave to his audience impressions of the characteristics and habits of the true "Father of our Country."

Special programs were given for the lower and higher grades, one at 9:00 for the high school and another at 9:45 for the others.

High School Graduate Receives Signal Honor

George Campbell, who was graduated from high school last June, is one of the few boys in the state to receive the State Farmer degree. This honor was conferred upon him last spring.

Word has just been received that he is one of the three "State Farmers" in Michigan.

The American Farmer degree is the highest honor that may be bestowed upon an F. A. boy. It has been known for some time that this young man has carried on one of the finest Smith-Hughes projects in the state. This latest success goes to strengthen his position in project work.
