GROUPS AT WALLED LAKE WORK TO FILL CHRISTMAS BASKETS

Members Of Sunday School Classes Active In Providing Food And Clothing

The Cheerio Girls of the M. E. church are active this year in Christmas preparations. Saturday, December 12, Misses Pauline Jenkins and Ettie Adelle Richardson met with their teacher, Mrs. Harold Tripp, and made fruit cakes and candy. The articles were sold and the money will be used to pack Christmas baskets for the less fortunate people. The class has also assumed the responsibility of getting the Christmas trees for the Sunday School Christmas program and will decorate it.

Bobby Philp entertained the Crusader's Class of the M. E. church at his home Wednesday evening. A dinner was served at 6:30 and the evening was spent making "scrap" books to be used in the community Christmas baskets which are being packed for the needy of Walled Lake. The boys voted to give the money, which has proudly been spent by the Sunday School for Christmas presents for them, to the Methodist Children's Home at Redford. The boys have been busy selling candy made by their teacher, Miss Clara Campion. Boys who comprise this class are Clifford, Ralph and Bruce Campion, Roy Sealey, Roy Mercer, and Andrew Thomas. The boys are also buying presents for the community Christmas baskets.

Mrs. Paul McKibben will entertain her Sunday School class at her home near Union Lake this week end. The girls are dressing dolls and filling stockings with candy for the community baskets. The girls saved their money for this work from dues paid by their class members at each monthly class party. The girls have each contributed a doll. Members of this class are Shirley Post, Aarra Morgan, Vera Philp, Jane McGathen, Jean Stoffel, Virginia and Barbara Thayer, Grace and Florence Potts, Tessie Patten, Edna Eno and Freda German.

The Sunday School class taught by Miss Ruth Bradley is also buying Christmas gifts.

The boys of the King's American Class are making a donation to the Methodist Children's Home near Redford and are buying presents for the Christmas baskets.

The ladies of the Aid Society are making a contribution, in food stuffs for the community Christmas.

HI-Y CLUB INITIATES

The Walled Lake Hi-Y club held its second initiation Monday, December 14. Seven new members were initiated. This makes a total of 12 new members to be taken into the club so far this year. The club hopes to have a record membership by the end of the school year.

COMMERCE M. E. CHOIR WILL GIVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

A vocal solo by Ned Spencer of Commerce will be heard and also Christmas hymns by the choir.

PLAN CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT WALLED LAKE CHURCHES

The Baptist and M. E. churches will have their usual Christmas program at the M. E. Church Wednesday evening, December 23. The program will be sponsored by the True Blue Girls of the Methodist Sunday school with other classes of the Sunday school co-operating.

Greet good St. Nick with toast and tea

SHOULD Santa Claus show his jovial face in your fireplace Christmas morning, don't appear astonished. Carry it off with a sang froid and nonchalant, remembering your duty as a hostess: Serve him toast and tea.

Oh yes—he's very fond of tea, with two lumps of sugar: His smile will broaden appreciably. And be sure the toast is made electrically. He's accustomed to the best. Of course, you too will want to share these crisp, golden slices, with the butter melting-in. It's a treat you can't take our word for. Put an electric toaster in your Christmas stocking, and try it for yourself!

ELECTRIC TOASTERS $3.95 up
AUTOMATIC TYPE $12.50 up
Cost of operation 2½¢ per hour

Guaranteed Electrical Gifts are sold by your neighborhood electrical dealer, hardware dealer and department store.
