I. O. O. F. Meets Every Wednesday 8 Mile Rd. at Grand River Clarenceville Lodge No. 427 With our new officers installed and real activities underway, the Editors of this column have decided that its readers should know just what three links worn on the lapel of a man's coat really mean, as it will take some time and space to explain what Oddfellowship is. This is being done so that you may know just the kind of character that an Oddfellow should have, also that when you meet a man who wears three links, who does not live up to the principles of Oddfellowship you will know that he is not a real Oddfellow. This continued story which is to start next week will carry the lessons taught in the Suburban, Encampment, Canton and Rebekah branches of the order. HOT SPOTS Singing lessons have proven a grate help to some of our members; (Sing you sinners sing). Say Bill, why don't you come to lodge once in a while? Nick, we thank you for the beautiful ferns. We have been told that Roberts likes blonds. Clarence Billings has been appointed sociate editor of this column; he is a little fellow, but oh my. Say Mac, how do you like working in the city? The ladies out here say they miss you. Jimmie is it true that if your wife don't cook your supper you will make her buy one? BILL and CLARENCE

Chevrolet To Have Honor Position At Auto Show When the doors open Saturday to the National Automobile Show in Grand Central Palace, New York, Chevrolet will occupy the position of honor on the show floor for the fifth consecutive year. Each year the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce awards first place at the national shows to the member of the company which has done the largest dollar volume of business in the previous 12 months. The award is much coveted in the industry, because in addition to the distinction it conveys it also carries with it the right to first choice of exhibition space at the national shows in New York and Chicago.
