Stan Kenton To Give 2 Concerts At C'ville

Jazz pianist Stan Kenton and his band will appear at Clarenceville High School on Nov. 14 and 15 under sponsorship of the Clarenceville Entertainment Series.

Kenton was so well received last year that the series booked him this year for two concert appearances and a band clinic. Concerts will be given at 8 p.m. Sunday and Monday, Nov. 14 and 15, with a band clinic scheduled for Sunday at 2 p.m.

STAN KENTON

TICKETS, at $2.50 per concert and $1 for the clinic, are on sale weekdays from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the Louis E. Schmidt Auditorium in Clarenceville High School, 20155 Middle Belt, Livonia.

Mail orders for tickets will be accepted by Mrs. John Slatin, 20394 Louise, Livonia.

Kenton's jazz orchestra is orchestra-in-residence at Redlands University in Redlands, Calif. The group regularly travels throughout the United States to conduct clinics in colleges and high schools.

Kenton was the third musician to be elected to Downbeat's "jazz hall of fame," the first two being Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington.

AMONG HIS many musical accomplishments Kenton was commissioned to write an original ballet, commemorating the marriage of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier.

In addition previously announced "big band" concerts scheduled at Clarenceville the series has booked in Woody Herman for Sunday, Dec. 12. Tickets, at $2.50 each, will be on sale in the box office the nights of the Kenton concerts.

amusements Schoolcraft Club Readies Ibsen Play

Fresh from five highly-acclaimed performances of "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" over the recent inaugural weekend, the Schoolcraft College Drama Club is hard at work readying "A Doll's House" for presentation Nov. 4 to 7.

Leads in the well-known Henrik Ibsen drama will be portrayed by Karen Schmidt (Nora) of Livonia, and Mark Keilman (Torvald) of Detroit. The club's adviser is Dr. Lawrence Rudick, Schoolcraft speech instructor.

"Doll's House" is the second of four productions scheduled by the club this year. Future plays include "Rain" which is based on W. Somerset Maugham's short story "Miss Sadie Thompson," slated for February, and "The Strangers," a translation of a farce by George Feydeau, in April.

The plays are performed in the Liberal Arts Theater. Tickets are $1.50 and are available in the student activities office, the bookstore and at the door.
