Driver Without Public Utilities Permit Held

Steve Meyer of Chicago was arraigned in Justice John J. Schulte's court Friday charged with driving a motor vehicle without a Michigan Public Utilities Commission permit. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs or five days in the County jail. He was unable to pay and the case was carried over to February 5.

Meyer is an employee of the Greyhound Lines of Chicago. He was arrested by Scott Sturtevant, Jr., an officer of the Michigan Public Utilities Commission.

Oldest Living Driver Resident of Michigan

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 3.—Probably the oldest licensed automobile driver in the United States lives in Michigan.

The Department of State recently issued a driver's license to Thomas Gordon of Grand Rapids, 102 years old. When the application giving Mr. Gordon's age was received, at first it was thought a mistake had been made. Then because of his advanced age, he was asked to demonstrate to state police that he could control an automobile. They reported that he was as adept as the "average man of 60."
