EASTERN STARS ENJOY PROGRAM, INITIATORY WORK

Music And Dancing of Future Last Special Meeting Of The Year

Farmington Chapter No. 239, O. E. S. held its last special meeting of the year for initiatory work Tuesday evening with a good attendance despite the inclement weather.

Instead of the usual dinner the meeting opened informally at 7:30 o'clock and a musical program was given.

A Ladies quartette composed of Gladys Boucher, June Johnson, Clara Mae Ross and M. Marie Felling sang, "From Glory to Calvary" and "Alas and Did My Savior Bleed." Solos by Edward Eaton were "Sylvia" by Oley Speeks, and "Let Me Dream Again."

A dance number was given by pupils of Gladys Boucher, Dorothy Baker, Thelma Williams, Shirley Williams, Betty Lynch, Margaret Barnes, Margaret Rozelle and Joyce Heaney. Sousa's March, "The Washington Post" was played by Hayward Sallow. A men's quartette composed of Edward Eaton, Robert Cook, Norman Barrons and Arthur Appin, M. E. Choir director, sang, "He Arose" and "There Was No Other War."

Mary Lou and Betty Jane Worsfold gave a dance number. Miss June Johnson sang two solos, "Elegy" by Garrett and "Wondrous Night in June" by Brown.

The ladies and men's quartette united in singing the concluding numbers "In the Garden" and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye."

Immediately after the program officers of the chapter proceeded with their work. The conferring of degrees was done by the advanced officers with the assistance of Past Matrons Josephine McGee and Ethel Middlewood.
