MARY BRAVENDER,
OLD RESIDENT OF
TOWNSHIP, PASSES

Aged Woman Succumbs After Illness Of Three Weeks; Pneumonia Caused Death

Death came Thursday morning to Mrs. Mary Bravender, well-known resident of Farmington Acres, who had been ill for three weeks. Mrs. Bravender was one of the oldest residents of this area, having passed the fourscore mark.

For the past three weeks Mrs. Bravender had suffered from pneumonia. Her rugged constitution had apparently conquered the malady, when difficulties developed this week and she suffered a setback. She was taken to a hospital for care Wednesday and failed to rally.

Funeral arrangements are to be made Friday. Her nearest relatives, a nephew, resides in Canada.

FIRE DAMAGE SLIGHT
Farmington firemen were called to a fire on the roof of John Green's residence on Maple avenue Monday. Damage was slight.
