Book Display Set For Nov. 7

The Library Committee of the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth, 680 Church St., has arranged to have books for all ages on display Sunday morning, Nov. 7, from 9:30 a.m. until noon.

Interested persons are in-entitled "The Cartwheel" published in the magazine. She is the daughter of Cornelius and Priscilla Stigter. "I guess that creativity is just some wild sort of escape," Miss de Stigter said in an interview by the magazine.

Now a student in the University of Michigan School of Architecture and Design, Miss de Stigter was one of 60 young persons to be selected from more than 4,000 entries in the contest.

The magazine is for high school age members of the United Church of Christ, the Episcopal Church, the Church of the Brethren, and the Anglican Church of Canada.

Entries to the contest were in four categories including photography, art work, sculpture, and creative writing.

A sombre outlook, a sense of loneliness and an awareness of world problems was evidenced in the winning entries according to a release by the magazine.

Order blanks will be available. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Filtzer are co-chairmen of the event.

Nardin Park's Annual Boutique Coming Nov. 3

Macramé accessories, handknits and dried floral arrangements are among the many items to go on sale Wednesday, Nov. 3, when the Nardin Park Methodist Church of Farmington presents its annual Christmas Boutique.

The church is located at 2687 W. 11 Mile, and the sale will open at 11 a.m. A cafeteria will be open for shoppers.

Gay Christmas decorations will be featured in one booth. Among the holiday items for sale will be tree ornaments, tnatary trees, pine cone baskets and wreaths.

THE BOUTIQUE also will have white elephant items for a dollar or less at the Penny Pincher booth, and a toy shop with children's gifts.

A Bake Shop will offer candies, spices, baked goods, snack items, light and dark fruit cakes and traditional decorative Santa cookies.

Also on sale will be stationery, gift wrapping, plants, handmade jewelry, candles, pillows, aprons, wall hangings and mission made items.

FOR YOUNG SHOPPERS, there will be a Children Only shop, sandwiches for lunch and a play area.

Mrs. John Mathot is chairman of the Nardin Park boutique and Mrs. Richard Faunce is co-chairman.

Mrs. Ernest Nicolay is in charge of the luncheon and Mrs. James Love has handled publicity.

Booth chairmen include Mrs. Frederick Kalmay, Mrs. Donald Fleisher, Mrs. Clarence Kilpatrick, Mrs. Horace Waters, Mrs. Wilbur Reber, Mrs. Wallace Barringer, Mrs. Douglas Welborn, Mrs. Herbert Hubrecht, Mrs. William Cramer, Mrs. Ralph Stafford, Mrs. John Patterson, Mrs. Chester Majeski and Mrs. Rachel MacDonald.

St. Andrew Bazaar Set Nov. 4

A free nursery, a noon luncheon and a baked ham dinner are among the attractions set for this year's bazaar of St. Andrew Episcopal Church, 16360 Hubbard, Livonia.

The bazaar will be held Thursday, Nov. 4, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The ham dinner will be served from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

An avenue of shops will specialize in handcrafted items made during the past year by the women of the church. There will be a boutique featuring pillows, knitted and crocheted items, baby clothes, ponchos, hats, mittens, sweaters and purses.

Among the items is a hand-made bedspread of ecru string yarn.

There also will be a display of Christmas decorations and a treasure trunk of items for the home, a country kitchen and a church booth. A "children's only" booth will have items designed for the shopper who is under 16, at prices ranging from five cents to $2.

Co-chairmen of the bazaar are Mrs. Marjorie Deacon and Mrs. Alice Pickardt.

Attractions will include country kitchen, a boutique, cake walk, pizza kitchen and a white elephant booth.

'New Earth' Is Theme Of Meeting

The Rev. James Seregow, director of campus action, will be guest speaker when Plymouth Church Women's Guild held their annual World Community Day Friday, Nov. 5, at 9:30 a.m. The meeting will take place in the Assembly of God Church, 42021 Ann Arbor Trail.

"Build a New Earth" is to be the theme of the meeting. Those attending are asked to bring one clean bottle or jar for recycling, and clothing and light blankets to be distributed by church women to disaster areas all over the world. Rev. Seregow's ministry has taken him over half of the U.S., to 15 foreign countries and behind the Iron Curtain. Child care will be provided. Coffee and refreshments will be served.

Evangelist Will Lead Services

Evangelist Franklin Orr will conduct revival services, from Oct. 31 through Nov. 7, in Canton Baptist Church, 44115 Gordon, Plymouth. He will speak every evening at 7 p.m. Pastor of the church is the Rev. Kenneth Sladd.

Mt. Hope Plans Bazaar

A western-style "chicken in a basket dinner" and a square dance will be highlights of the Calton Christmas Bazaar in Mt. Hope Congregational Church, 30330 Schoolcraft, Livonia, Nov. 12 and 13. Rebekah Circle, headed by Mrs. Phillip Feller, is planning the dinner Friday evening from 5 to 7 p.m. The dance will follow at 8.

The doors will swing open for the sale Saturday at 9:30 a.m. There will be booths for men only and for children only, as well as Christmas decorations, a country store, foreign flavor baked goodies and candies of all kinds.

There also will be movies and babysitting plus games and prizes for the children. Lunches will be served. The sale will end at 4:30 p.m.

Westland Baptist Plans Homecoming

A family dinner and afternoon service will feature Homecoming Day at the Westland Baptist Church, 35375 Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia, on Sunday, Oct. 31. The Rev. George H. Slavin, senior pastor of Highland Park Baptist Church, Southfield, will speak at the 2:30 p.m. rally. His subject will be "You Cannot Hide and Go Seek."

Special features are planned for the 9:45 a.m. Bible school, and the Rev. Edward H. Degville, pastor of the church, will preach at the 11 a.m. service.

A family film, "Whispering Mountain," will be shown at 4:30 p.m., and the day will be climaxed by a closing rally at 6 p.m., featuring an old-fashioned hymn singing and a talk by the Rev. Hernan Cortes, missionary to Puerto Rico.

Special music will be furnished for all the programs. The public is invited to the day's services.

Services will be held at 7:30 each night in the Clarenceville Church, 20300 Middle Belt, Livonia.

Special guests at the services will be Mr. and Mrs. Mark Yasuhara from the Tyler Street United Methodist Church, Dallas, Texas.

The Rev. Elsie A. Johns from Clarenceville and the Rev. Paul Hart from St. Matthews will also participate.
