Prepare now for the business upturn—brighten your store with

LIGHT!

People everywhere have had enough of gloom and pessimism. Merchants are already noticing a change in the trend. Hard work is making itself felt, and many observers believe that the turn in business conditions is at hand. Is your position such that you can seize the opportunity when it comes, and use it to your advantage?

Now is the time to prepare for the upturn. And one of the best ways to do it is to "set your house in order." Are you displaying your goods to best advantage? Are you satisfied with the quality of lighting in your store?

Brightly lighted windows and a well-lighted store are two of your strongest assets in a bid for increased sales. Light attracts customers—it is powerfully magnetic. Well-lighted windows improve the appearance of merchandise and give you a strong advantage over competitors. And good lighting works just as successfully for the small store as for the large. Remember, too, that light is one of the cheapest things you buy. Why not enlist its aid in your behalf?

Without charge our lighting engineers will gladly measure your lighting, inspect your equipment, and make suitable recommendations.
