State Representative Is Seeking Re-Election

Friends of Philemon J. Miller of Walled Lake, a candidate for re-election to the State House of Representatives, believe that he has an enviable record as a legislator. The following are some of things that Mr. Miller has done while in office:

Secured passage of act reimbursing Oakland County $52,831.90 for illegal drain tax.

Introduced and passed act removing penalties and fees on 1929 and 1930 delinquent taxes within time limit.

Active in reduction of state property tax of $500,000.00.

Saved Oakland County $10,000.00 a year in his fight to stop cut in state tubercular aid.

Leader in fight to return auto weight tax to county, bringing Oakland around $421,611.20.

Secured passage of bill eliminating second probate court with saving to county of $10,000.00 a year.

Led fight to provide that state aid for township roads be taken from state highway fund giving Oakland an additional $80,000.00 which in four years will increase to $150,000.00 per year.

Carried his fight against unjust valuations in Oakland County into the Governor's own office which was a big factor in reduction of County's valuation of $89,000,000.00.

Turned over to Oakland County Poor Commission voluntarily, ten per cent of his salary since July 1st.

Requested the Governor to incorporate in his call for special session of legislature a measure to remove state property tax from real estate which would automatically remove the State Board of Equalization and the State Tax Commission.

If this record of accomplishment (which is only a part of what he has done) meets with your approval and you wish its continuance, ask for a Republican ballot and vote for Philemon J. Miller for State Representative.

STUDENT WRITES FAVORABLE REVIEW OF TELEPHONE BOOK

A Detroit high school student, assigned the task of writing a book review, selected the telephone directory as his subject, and submitted the following:

"This book deals with many characters. Scott, Shakespeare and the Bible had many characters, players, and prophets, but none of those books had the characters so well placed and appearing at the most thrilling moments as this book does. This book is, in a way, a sketch of life in our times; it tells of the doctor, lawyer, priest, storeman, and in fact every station of life at the present moment. This book, to use a vulgar expression, 'has the number' of everyone whom it mentions.

"This book is different from many books of today because it has no false propaganda or sayings. Like all historic books, this book is out of date as soon as it is printed, but that is no reason for never reading it or glancing through its numerous and interesting pages.

"Some books, such as the Bible, Scott, Shakespeare, etc., are institutions in the home and are read by everyone. This, too, is a book that should be in all homes. There is no reason for not allowing even the youngest member of the family to read this book; not will it teach any false doctrines to the most ignorant.

"For hours one may glance through this book and never find one statement contradicting another statement concerning the same subject. From A to Z, nothing is misplaced. For accuracy and as a book of frequent reference, few homes can do without it. Its title is 'The Telephone Directory.'"
