RE-ELECT YOUR SENATOR

James E. Lawson

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

Mr. Lawson is the Senator who was most instrumental in cutting the assessed valuation of Oakland County over $100,000,000.00. This is an immense saving for EVERY TAXPAYER.

Mr. Lawson, as he promised, obtained thousands of dollars for Covert Road taxation relief, which means another immense saving for EVERY TAXPAYER.

Every day of the year Mr. Lawson is looking after the direct relief for the home-owner and taxpayer.

Upwards of 10,000 taxpayers and home-owners signed Mr. Lawson's petitions for re-election for another term, realizing that he is the man who will continue to get additional relief.

This advertisement paid for by taxpayers and home-owners who fully realize just how much Senator Lawson has done to relieve our tax burden and also what Mr. Lawson has done to make Oakland County a better place to live in.

Alleges That Insects Are Menace to World

Insects are conquering in a mass attack on humanity. This is the view of A. Moore Hogarth, chairman of the College of Pestology, London, England, who has made a life study of insects. He declares that insects are establishing such a stronghold that one day man will wake up to find that he has met his master. Mr. Hogarth said: "The trouble is that men in their ignorance take no well-organized steps to fight the insect menace, and they don't realize that insects have brains. Before the war mosquitoes were unknown in England. Today every fourth or fifth person has been bitten by one."

"I am not a scaremonger. That eminent scientist, Sir Oliver Lodge, for example, has said that the end of the century will not be marked by such a calamity as an earthquake or flood, but by the ascendancy of the insect world over man."

"Some simple-minded local authorities imagine that they are destroying mosquitoes when they solemnly spray ponds with paraffin. In their ignorance they leave alone large tracts of ground where mosquitoes breed in shoals. As for cockroaches these are everywhere. If you could not get them out of a building without pulling it down."

"Why are insects defeating man? Because all of your brains are devoted to the male things of life, to eating, to hunger and the welfare of the species, while man's brain is dissipated in various other interests."

Million "Plunks" Makes One's Serenity Secure

A million dollars spread over seventy years of a man's life accomplishes one great good at least. It spares him from an immense amount of anxiety. It is ammunition in his annual against care. Serenity, some philosophers think, is the greatest good. They have secured it, but at the sacrifice of everything else. They have usually been lonely and impeccable hermits.

One cannot imagine much serenity or even personal comfort without money. Now, take a million dollars, and if you don't count trouble by trying to manage it, it drives away most mental distress and brightens every hour of the day. We do not adore wealth, but we understand its importance. It is worth while not to be bothered by the vicissitudes of life, and most of them can be eluded with a million dollars.

There are more "Hallelujahs" and fewer "Oh, hades!" with it. One may be freer and less circumvented by the expression of opinion, and certainly there isn't any excuse for a resentful attitude toward the mighty. With a million, you are somewhat mighty yourself.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"Mourner's Bench"

In the United States (only), at religious meetings in churches, tents, and elsewhere, a bench, or row of camp-chairs, is placed directly beneath the platform or pulpit and reserved for those who wish to come forward at the close of the preacher's exhortations, to declare their sins and seek forgiveness of the Lord. The bench, or row of chairs, as the case may be, is called the mourner's bench. The mourner's bench was first mentioned in evidence a few years ago at the revival gatherings addressed by the late Dwight L. Moody, American evangelist, who said: "The devil howls in rage when he sees repentant sinners crowd the mourner's bench."—Literary Digest.

Captain Kidd "Framed?"

Recent biographers of Captain Kidd state that he was not a pirate and that the ships he took were lawful prizes captured in his legal capacity as a privateer. The charge of selling two ships of the great mogul could have been met at his trial by the production of two documents which Kidd had taken from these ships and which he claimed proved that they were sailing under commissions issued by the French East India company, which made them lawful prizes. These documents Kidd had handed to his patron Lord Bellmont and they were not discovered until some 200 years later in the public records office.

The lapel microphone in use, showing flexible cord connecting with amplifying equipment; micro, phone cord, and special input circuit-in case.

In ordinary use, the lapel microphone is equipped with 30 feet of flexible cord connected with the amplifier of the public address system, thus enabling the speaker to move about freely without reference to the location of a fixed microphone.

When worn on a speaker's clothing the lapel microphone picks up sound as the result of chest vibrations, in addition to that reaching it through the air. The former being rich in low frequencies, this would result in an unnatural quality of transmission, if it were not for the provision of a special input circuit which attenuates the low frequencies sufficiently to correct the effect of the chest vibrations.

G. Dewey Kimball

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CORNER OF OAKLAND COUNTY

"It has been two years since I went before the voters of Oakland County and pledged them my best efforts for a high type of service as coroner, and I am more than grateful to say that, with very few exceptions, my work has met with satisfactory cooperation from those connected with the cases I have been called on. Public officials, Law enforcement officers and the citizens of the county at large have invariably assisted me in the performance of my duties. For this I am thankful. In these present trying times, I again pledge to the people of Oakland County my present policy of efficiency, fairness and economy."

G. DEWEY KIMBALL, Coroner.
