

Acquaintance on Train
Wife's Former Husband
In a smoking compartment of the Twilight Limited, bound from Chicago to Detroit, the other day, a Chicagoan and a Detroit met and speedily became acquainted as people will on trains. Houser Massey, who is authority for the story and vouches for its truth, said the two men soon reached the point where they were trading their opinions on life and living.
"Well, I don't feel that way," said the Detroit. "I'm married, have been married for several years, and my wife and I get along very well. Of course, she's an exceptional woman. She'll be at the point where you are, a fellow I never saw. An experience like that is enough to take you not to trust women again."

She'll be at the point where you are, a fellow I never saw. An experience like that is enough to take you not to trust women again."
Arriving here, the two acquaintances walked up to the waiting room together. The Detroit's wife rushed to greet him, stopped suddenly. Her face paled. As she stopped, the Chicagoan dashed, muttered something about seeing a friend across the way, grabbed his bag from the red bag and was off. The Detroit didn't know that his acquaintance of the train was his wife's former husband.—Detroit Free Press.

Death Adair Fourth in List of Deadly Snakes
The Australian death adder is said to have borne an undeservedly bad name. People said the death adder was the most virulent poison of Australian snakes. Now Sir J. S. Soef, director of the Sydney zoo, states that it is not nearly so fearsome as has been imagined. The average farmer will sympathize with the fact that the death adder is one of the most dangerous reptiles in the bush. At the weekend a man was bitten by one. The fact that the bite had little ill-effect on him prompted inquiries to meet Mr. Soef's opinion. Sir J. Soef declared that he would have been surprised if the man had died, as he would rank the death adder as only fourth among Australia's poisonous snakes. The most deadly is the tiger snake, capable of killing a healthy man in 70 minutes. Next comes the brown snake, a potential killer in two hours. Then, says Mr. Soef, the black snake, which can bite a man and put him to sleep in 24 hours, but gives him a chance of life. Then the death adder and other varieties.

Sports Improve Posture
While corrective exercises for posture have been found even more helpful. In the case of students at Harvard. At present there are 100 freshmen who were obliged to take corrective exercises for poor posture, those who took part in organized athletic sports during the subsequent term showed a marked improvement in posture than those who did not go in for sports, the latter showing little if any improvement, according to the Boston Herald.

Traveling Cinemas
Traveling motion picture shows are the latest cinematic development in movie business. At present there are more than 1,200 such units traveling from one village to another. The popularity of the exhibitions may be judged by their rapid growth in number during the past two years. At the end of 1925 there were less than 400 traveling movies. This figure rose in 1926 to 900, and for the present year it is planned to produce 2,000 projects.—Washington Star.

What Do You Give?
A New York vocational guidance expert advises people who are happy in their jobs to save their money until they can make a change. She might say, too, that if people are not taking happiness out of their jobs they would do well to see that they are putting into those jobs everything they have to give. What you get out of your job in the way of contentment depends upon what you are willing to put into it in a day to day effort.—Grover Patterson, in the Mobile Register.

Lake's Depth Varies
The Lake of Michigan, the largest lake in North America, in some places reaches 700 feet, but large portions are shallow, and the shores, especially in the south, are lined with marshy tracts covered with reeds. The lake receives a number of streams from the surrounding mountains and discharges through the Desnaguero into Lake Anahuac, where waters finally evaporate in the great marshes in the southern part of the closed basin.

Man's Food Consumption
A healthy man, with a normal appetite, who reaches seventy has eaten 70 times his own weight, according to the calculation of experts of the faculty of Paris. It is also figured that in his span of seventy years the average man of 140 pounds would have eaten 13 tons of bread, 15 tons of vegetables, 7 tons of meat or 33 whole cows; 7 tons of fruit, 1,500 tons of sugar and sugar-cane, 15,000 quarts of milk and 20,000 quarts of beer, in Europe, or water, in America.

Helping Aviators
The United States weather bureau has developed apparatus for giving aviators a bold hand and make them clouds move and therefore the air velocities at various elevations.

Feast for Science
Science hasn't done much yet. When it can transplant whiskers from the nose of a bald head and make them grow there it will be entitled to a place in the paper.—Toledo Blade.
