

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—First motor car procession across the George Washington bridge at New York during the dedication of the great structure. 2—Premier Laval of France and his daughter, Mlle. Josette, photographed just before they left America for home. 3—Ranch house on the ranch of the prince of Wales at High River, Alberta, Canada, where a fire cause the death of ten of his prized cattle.

Some of the Champion Milk Producers of Year

Robert Roemer, progressive young Guernsey dairy cattle breeder of Fort Collins, Colo., and some of the cows in his dairy herd. The herd has been declared the highest producing in the United States during the past year.

FOUND AN ELEMENT

Element No. 57, one of the two hitherto unknown components of the universe, has been discovered by Dr. Jacob Papish, professor of spectroscopy at Cornell university, in a substance known as samarskite, a lustrous black mineral found in Norway, Siberia and southern states of this country.

IN REGAL ATTIRE

This is the wife of a native chief of one of the tribes that inhabit the Belgian Congo, with all her royal regalia. Her high rank is denoted by the many bracelets of metals and gold which she wears upon her arms, while her legs are encased from ankles to knees with several hundreds of yards of metal wire.

Million in Cash Shipped by Plane

One million dollars in cash, weighing over 500 pounds, was carried from the Federal Reserve and other banks at Richmond, Va., to the First National bank of Danville, Va., which needed the money in a hurry. Our photograph shows the valuable cargo being unloaded at Danville.

Trunk Murderess and Her Husband

Shown above with her husband, Doctor Judd, is Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd who, arrested in Los Angeles, confessed that she killed two women in Phoenix and shipped their bodies to Los Angeles in a trunk and suit case.

Detroit Man To Talk Before Garden Club

Mr. Albert Hofman of Detroit will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Farmington Garden Club next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Dohany, 28425 Base Line Road. He will talk on "Growing Better Gladiolas," putting special emphasis on winter care.

FARMINGTON HOLDS STRONG ROCHESTER TEAM TO 6-6 TIE

Spaller Carries Ball Over From One-Yard Line; Berkley Plays Here Friday

Farmington High School's football team showed unexpected strength last Friday in holding the powerful Rochester team to 6 to 6 tie in a game played at Farmington. The Tritons play Berkley here this Friday.

Rochester's single touchdown, scored on a pass, was nullified by Farmington when Spaller, playing at fullback, plunged over from the one-yard line. A pass from Hamilton, intended for Lancaster, for the extra point failed to connect.

The Triton score came after a penalty for slugging had given them the ball on the one-yard line. Spaller going over on the second play.

In a practice game Tuesday, played on a wet field, Farmington and South Lyon played to a 13 to 13 tie.

Mrs. Amy Perry Dies; Burial Is In Milford

Mrs. Amy Perry, for nine years a resident of Farmington, died last Friday in Clarenceville where she had moved about a year ago. Funeral services were held Monday at Farmington, at the Spencer Heeny Funeral Home, with Rev. Elmer Palmer officiating. Burial took place in Milford.

Mrs. Perry had been ill from cancer for some time. She was 37 years old and leaves four children, Mrs. Ulysses Janes of Royal Oak, and Louella, Wilbur, and Lloyd Perry. Mr. Perry died 11 years old.

What's the Verdict of ROVING EYES?

YOUR home expresses YOU! Do floors, furniture and woodwork gleam with unmarred beauty, or are they scarred and shabby? Are rooms drab or do they glow with happy sunshine of color?

What a transformation can be made at a cost of only a dollar or so by use of —WaterSpar Varnish that even boiling water cannot harm. WaterSpar Enamel that dries in four hours and gives beautiful china-smooth finish. WaterSpar Liquid Wax to give supreme lustre and elegance! Marvelously soft hues! Glorious shining colors! Stop in for Color Cards.

FARMINGTON HARDWARE CO.

E. O. Hatton Farmington

D. L. Dickerson Phone 3

Surprising!

People of Farmington and vicinity are continually experiencing pleasant surprise at the wide variety of work that can be obtained, with quicker service and at lower cost, in their own home-town printing shop, The Farmington Enterprise.

Not merely general commercial printing for business and professional men; not merely attractive and unusual things for clients who like lively, different things to call attention to this or that affair; not merely printing for every event in life from birth announcements to wedding invitations and cards of thanks for thoughtfulness shown in bereavement—but all these and a host of other printed pieces are produced regularly in the completely-equipped plant of The Enterprise.

When next you need printing service, consult us. Or when you have something in mind that you wish to accomplish that isn't ordinarily associated with printing, bring your problem to us. Ideas plus the printing-press have done more great things than any other force in history. May We Help You?

The Farmington Enterprise Established 1888