Red Cross Garments Received For Sewing

Farmington's share of sewing on Red Cross garments for Oakland County began this week. The materials are donated by the Red Cross and the work is done free by local organizations. Cut pieces of 240 articles have been distributed here through Clare Grace, block chairman. In about two weeks the finished garments will be returned to County headquarters for distribution.

The first aim of the Red Cross this year is to provide needy children with garments, keeping their school attendance regular.

Groups assisting in the sewing project in Farmington are the Woman's Club, M. E. and Evangelical Ladies' Aids, Our Lady of S. rova's Altar Society, Baptist Women's Union, Universalist Missionary Group and O. E. S. The P. T. A., American Legion and Business and Professional Women's Club are also assisting.
