

Senior Lauded

FARMINGTON
William D. Brunstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Brunstad of Pebble Point in Farmington, was one of three Cranbrook School seniors elected to the Cum Laude Society for high scholastic achievement.

Mrs. Josephine Heinze, of Hayes St., Farmington, has a wonderful story to tell about an act of kindness performed by three young Farmington boys on Halloween night. She had been hospitalized in Botsford Hospital and returned home late Sunday afternoon, Oct. 31. She didn't have time to purchase a large quantity of candy for that evening but two neighborhood boys went shopping for her to buy $2 worth of candy.

Early in the evening, three boys came to the door and she explained she had been hospitalized from the hospital and couldn't give as much as she had in previous years. Mrs. Heinze turned to get candy to give them and when she opened the door the boys had taken from their pillow cases a large quantity of candy to give. In return in reverse.

ONE PERSON came from Phoenix. A superintendent of schools came from Charlevoix, Mich.

They were but two of more than 70 persons who came from other points to enjoy the reunion and dancing at the dinner of Farmington High School Class of 1938 Oct. 29 in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Middle Belt, Farmington.

"We feel fortunate to have had more than half of the class attend after graduating 33 years ago," says Mrs. Ruth Nelson, reunion chairman. Roger Walker, class president, served as master of ceremonies for the brief program. The retired superintendent, Robert Burns, delivered a brief talk and Howard Turner, class vice president, gave gifts for attendees in special categories.

TWO YOUNG persons from Farmington now attending Alma College were in the college's choir when it performed in the First Presbyterian Church in Dearborn on Sunday, Oct. 31. Local members of the 50-voice Alma College A Cappella Choir are Christine Washburn and Jeff Foran. Mrs. Cook is the former Sherrie Omeroso of Ann Arbor who met her husband while attending Central Michigan University. He is a Farmington High graduate, class of 1962, and is now teaching fifth grade at William Grace Elementary School, Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook of Glenview Dr. are proud parents of twins, daughter Laurie Anita and son John Ernest, born Oct. 28 in St. Mary Hospital, Livonia.

The twins were welcomed home by brother Gary, one-year-old. Maternal grandfather is Ernest Omeroso of Ann Arbor. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. Cook of Grand River, Farmington.

MARIE AND daughter Mary Isabel Faunce of Farmington recently enjoyed a tour of Mexico.

They left Farmington on Oct. 15 and arrived in Mexico City, a town of 8.5 million persons. Sunday they visited an anthropological museum and went to a ranch to see the Mexican charras (cowboys) show and were served a wonderful lunch. In the evening they attended a performance of the Mexican Folklore Ballet in the Palace of Fine Arts. On south to Acapulco on a fiesta yacht cruise to watch the sunset on Acapulco Bay and to Taxco, the Silver City, continuing to San Jose Puren, a health resort, and back to Mexico City before returning to Farmington on Oct. 30.

DOUGLAS AND Karen Hervela and two children of Farmington are moving this month to their new home one mile from Gaylord. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hervela were born and raised in Farmington, graduating from Farmington High School in 1967 and 1969 respectively.

He served in the U.S. Navy from 1958-62 and upon discharge became an apprentice bricklayer, later a journeyman and has been a mason contractor for the past two years. Their parents, Les and Jane Robinson and Gordon and Ann Hervela, are all Farmington residents.

THE QUAKERTOWN chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Farmington, met Nov. 17 in the home of Mrs. Milton Hopkins, Livonia, with Mrs. F. M. Harris as co-hostess.

Mrs. Marion Haskell, past regent of Lucy Wolcott Barnum Chapter of Adrian and chairman of the DAR museum, presented an interesting slide program on the DAR museum in Constitution Hall, Washington, D.C.

Among those attending were: Mrs. James D. Ball, Mrs. Orvis Henke, Mrs. J. Lawrence Kelly, Mrs. Edward LeVane, Mrs. Malcolm Gorman, Mrs. Bruce Robinson, Mrs. Harry T. Stultz, Mrs. Richard Wertz, and Mrs. Warren W. White, all of Farmington; Mrs. Ellen and Mrs. Wesley J. Stewart of Pontiac; Mrs. Arthur C. Cunningham, Mrs. Charles Fraser, Mrs. F. M. Harris, Mrs. Lewis Putman and Mrs. Robert Walkowiak of Detroit; Mrs. Thomas K. Gorman, Mrs. Mrs. Roland J. Gadowa of Lathrup Village; Mrs. Jack Underwood Sr., Westland; Mrs. Thomas Schorrenberg of Dearborn; and Mrs. Frank Faust III, of Brighton.

World Traveler Returns Home

FARMINGTON
Roland S. Alvey, world traveler from Farmington, has recently returned after completing an 80,000-mile journey for a brief stay before embarking on another trip.

Alvey, of Kingslane Apartments, Farmington, has joined Glyn Travel, Inc. at the Tel-Twelve Mall in Southfield after having served the firm in an advisory capacity for the past 10 years.

He is heading up the cruise division, particularly the P&O British cruise line ships. Alvey went around the world on the flagship Canberra in 1967 and Australia and New Zealand before heading home via Honolulu and Los Angeles.

He took another round-the-world jaunt in March 1972 aboard the SS Cronsey. Alvey, considered an authority on world travel, will be personally conducting a cruise starting Nov. 28 for Mexico, stopping at Acapulco, Vallarta and Mazatlan.

He is the brother of Merle Alvey, whose Dixieland band entertains crowds each summer at Detroit Tiger baseball games.

4,200 miles to Gibraltar to unload 150 Indians who were headed for home after being in London for two-four years.

The ship then proceeded through the Straits of Gibraltar, headed for Cape Town, South Africa, then on to Australia and New Zealand before heading home via Honolulu and Los Angeles.

PTA Slates Jr. Books Discussion

FARMINGTON
A demonstration by a regular Junior Great Books discussion group will be the feature of the Farmington Area PTA Council's meeting Wednesday, Nov. 17, in the Farmington Junior High School library at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Richard Justice, Junior Great Books chairman for the council which sponsors the program, and Mrs. Ivor Nylin, co-leader, will conduct a discussion with 10 sixth-grade students from Kenbrook Elementary School.

Planning to participate are Alan Bohne, Laurie Carl, Patrick Fitzpatrick, JoEllen Markey, Steve Mesenbring, Go Ogosh, Jennifer Roberts, Steve Robertson, Wendy Sharp and Adam Zobian.

"Since many persons are unaware of how a Junior Great Books group functions, we thought an actual session would be of interest," explained Mrs. Justice.

"Anyone wanting information is welcome to attend this meeting. I especially urge a person contemplating becoming an adult leader to come and witness how important and desirable the program is and which cannot exist without adult participation."

The regular council business meeting will follow. Each local PTA is asked to have its president and delegate present.
