

Notarannis Have Home In Dearborn

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Daniel Notaraini are making their home in Dearborn following their recent marriage in Bushnell Congregational Church in Detroit.

Mrs. Notaraini is the former Jane Louise Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Adams of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Amelio Notaraini of Livonia are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Jon R. Almgren officiated.

THE BRIDE wore a Victorian gown of off-white peau de soie. Lace medallions trimmed the gown and edged her mantilla veil, and she carried a nosegay of stephanotis, mums and baby's breath.

Mrs. David C. Silden of Utica was matron of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Wright of Hartford, Conn., and

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richard Hall are living in Plymouth following their wedding trip to Nassau, the Bahamas, and Miami Beach, Fla.

Both are students at Eastern Michigan University. They were married in Mt. Hope Congregational Church, Livonia, in an evening ceremony Aug. 21.

MRS. CHARLES HALL
(Shila Tooze)

The bride is the former Shila Tooze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tooze of Wayne, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Johanna Hall of Garden City and the late Charles Richard Hall.

The Rev. James Altman of Wayne was the officiating minister, and Mrs. Dorothy Sedick was the organist.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white pique with a chapel train. The scoop neckline and fitted bodice were threaded with pink ribbons. The Camelot cap of nylon held a bouffant veil of nylon net and bride's bouquet was of white daisies tied with pink ribbon.

As maid of honor, Suzanne Tooze, the bride's sister, wore a floor-length voile gown in a pink and blue print, with a scoop neckline and puffed sleeves. She wore a wreath of pink and white daisies in her hair and carried a bouquet of daisies and pink roses.

Similarly attired were the bridesmaids, Ann Fell of Pontiac, Sandie Bowman of St. Clair Shores and Diane Silva of Westland. The bride's cousin, Tracie Seward of La Grange, Ill., was a junior bridesmaid. Molly Tooze, another sister of the bride, and Susan Frent of Westland were the flower girls. They wore pink frocks with puffed sleeves and carried baskets of pastel-colored daisies.

Finney-Leppien Rites Oct. 2

Patricia Susan Leppien sewed the white crepe gown she wore when she became the bride of Donald James Finney in an Oct. 2 ceremony in Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church in Northville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Leppien of Baintree Circle, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Finney of St. Louis, Mo., are the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. John Wyskiel officiated, and the bride's father and mother gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDAL GOWN featured a high waist, mandarin collar and bishop sleeves with deep cuffs. Three bands of lace entwined with ribbon trimmed the front of the gown. The bride's flowers were white daisies, yellow roses and ivy.

Theresa Leppien, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and another sister, Marcia Leppien, was junior bridesmaid. The bridegroom's sister, Mary Beth Finney, was ring-bearer.

Their dresses, made by the bride's mother, were fashioned like the bride's gown in apricot crepe. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow and orange shag mums with brown dried flowers and tied with brown ribbons.

DENNIE BRANDON of St. Louis was best man and Robert E. Berg of Dearborn Heights was usher.

Mrs. Leppien wore a blue lace dress with a blue silk shantung sleeveless coat, and Mrs. Finney's ensemble was pink chiffon.

The couple's honeymoon was a long weekend traveling to St. Louis, and they will make their home there.

Newlyweds To Live In Fowlerville

A wedding trip to Wisconsin followed the marriage of Christine Galloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Galloway of Perth Street, Livonia, and Roger F. Kelcherman, son of Mrs. John Thode of Farmington and Harry Kelcherman of Traverse City.

They were married in Ward United Presbyterian Church, Livonia, on Sept. 4.

The bride's sister, Sue Galloway, was her maid of honor. Nancy Davidson and Kris Johnson were the bridesmaids.

Ashley Jones of Pottersville was best man, and Dick Schall and John Thode were the ushers.

The couple are living in Fowlerville.

Girl Scouts Tour Hospital, Earn Badges

Members of Cadette Girl Scout Troop 731, of Grace Lutheran Church, Westland, toured Plymouth General Hospital, 15361 Plymouth Road, Detroit, to earn their scouting badges in hospital and emergency care. Mrs. Delores Montgomery, troop leader, and Mrs. Betty Ouellette, co-leader, accompanied the group.

The Scouts were welcomed by Robert Wesley, administrative assistant, and given an introduction to the hospital by Mrs. Edith Haken, director of community relations and social service. The girls saw the hospital's new East Wing.

In pharmacy, Thomas Rolands, RPh, demonstrated the unit-dose and machine packaging system for medications which were pioneered by the hospital in 1968. Ron Harris of X-ray, described the new X-ray machine which uses closed circuit television for image intensification and an accurate examination of physical processes.
