

Spiritual Life Meetings Planned In 2 Churches

Dr. J. Edwin Orr, internationally-known teacher, preacher, author and scholar, will deliver a series of lectures and spiritual life meetings in this area beginning Sunday, Nov. 28.

He plans appearances in the Grand River Baptist Church, 34500 Six Mile, Livonia, the Redford Baptist Church, 34500 Seven Mile and Grand River, and the Schoolcraft College campus.

He also will speak in Detroit Bible College and at Wayne State University, and will make a visit to the Baptist Student Foundation in Lansing.

Dr. Orr has earned degrees from Belfast College of Technology, the University of London and Northwestern University and Seminary.

His lectures include such topics as "Science and the Bible," "Evolution, the Bible and Genesis," "The Playboy Morality and Christian Morals" and "The Logic of Faith."

DR. H. EDWIN ORR

A world traveler, he has visited 140 of the world's 150 countries. His writings include more than a score of books, some of which have been translated into more than a dozen languages. He has conducted spiritual life crusades in South America, Australia and North America.

DR. ORR'S crusade in Grand River Baptist will include talks at 10:45 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, and at 7:30 p.m. Monday through Wednesday.

He will speak in Redford Baptist at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and for Sunday services at 9 and 11:15 a.m. on Dec. 5.

His visit to Schoolcraft will be at 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 30, and at Wayne State at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 2. He will lecture Tuesday through Friday for 10:35 a.m. chapel services in Detroit Bible College.

Manor Guild Plans Service

St. Mary's Guild of Marycrest Manor Nursing Home in Livonia will hold the traditional Polish Wigilia, or sharing of the Christmas wafer, on Thursday, Dec. 2, at 6:30 p.m.

The service will be held in St. Peter's and Paul's Auditorium, Grandville and Sawyer, Detroit.

Nonprofit

The American Bible Society is a nonprofit organization founded in 1815 to translate, publish and distribute the Scriptures, without doctrinal note or comment, to people everywhere in a language they can read or understand and at a price they can afford.

REV. ANDREW GREELEY

St. Agatha Series Looks To Future Of Catholic Schools

The "Future of Catholic Schools" is the next topic for the St. Agatha Catholic Church Cultural Forum Series. The Rev. Andrew Greeley, author, priest and sociologist,

Rev. Lester Kinsolving's Religion Update

By contrast to recurrent reports of the diminishing influence of religion, the California Assembly (House of Representatives) spent the better part of one recent session engaged in a brisk debate on the Holy Bible.

This governmental Bible class in Sacramento was occasioned by San Francisco Democrat Willie Brown's bid to repeal all laws relating to any sexual conduct between consenting adults in private.

Similar legislation has been enacted by Britain's Parliament as well as by the state legislatures of both Illinois and Connecticut - whence there have been no reports that the sky has yet fallen.

BUT ASSEMBLYMAN Russell somehow failed to mention during his legislative homily that the only survivor of this cataclysmic punishment was a man named Lot. And the Bible reports no such punishment visited upon Lot, despite its disclosure that Lot founded the tribes of both Moab and Ammon - by means of his having incestuous relations with his two daughters, in a cave, while drunk. (Genesis 19:37,38).

Moreover, the citation of Sodom as an outright condemnation of homosexuality can be complicated, considering the School of Religion's Professor John von Rohr notes:

"In the case of the Sodomites, there was emphasis upon the fact that the sought - for relations would join in sexual union the diverse orders of angels and men."

Genesis 19:1 reports that it was two angels that the men of Sodom lusted after. And this becomes even more complicated, considering the Biblical tradition that angels are sexless ("They neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels..."). St. Matthew, 22:29.

NEVERTHELESS, when the Brown bill came up for debate, the Rev. E. Richard Barnes, a San Diego Republican with Bible in hand, quoted Leviticus 18:22: "Thou shalt not lie with a man as with a woman. It is an abomination."

But the Rev. and Hon. Mr. Barnes neglected to introduce legislation that such abominators be put to death - which is required by Leviticus 24:13.

"The capital of this state is Sacramento - not Sodom!" thundered Los Angeles Republican Frank Lautnerman whose fellow L.A. Republican, Newton Russell (also brandishing his Bible), emphasized:

"Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed because of their wickedness!"

AS FOR "UNNATURAL" sex acts, the California Assembly's Democratic leader Walter Keranian, a former prosecuting attorney, told the legislators how difficult this is to define and prosecute. One seeming Biblical denunciation, for instance, is Romans 1:26:

"There is an admission charge of $1.

Fr. Greeley is director of the Center for the Study of Ethnic Groups at the National Opinion Research Center in Chicago. He also is in the University of Illinois faculty.

He has written essays for many sociological journals on the subjects of ethnic groups, higher education and religion, and also has contributed articles to such publications as the New York Times and the New Republic.

He writes a regular column that appears in 40 syndicated papers and is author of several books including "And Young Men Shall See Visions," "The Friendship Game," "The Education of Catholic Americans," "The Church and the Suburbs" and "A Future to Hope In."

This is the same legislature which banned compulsory sex education - and has just amended the ban to allow compulsory instruction about venereal disease. Just how California teachers can possibly teach children about VD without mentioning sex remains as one of this "best" legislature's more intriguing mysteries.

Christians And Military Service Topic At WMU

A Christian's view of military service was the topic of a rap session involving a Redford Township Presbyterian and Western Michigan University students Tuesday.

Commander D. M. "Hoppy" Hanson, a veteran of 22 years in the U.S. Navy and an active member of Village Presbyterian Church, addressed a group of about 60 members of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship on the WMU campus.

Later quite a few of them joined him in a "rap" session to explore various aspects of military service and how they might be reconciled with Christian principles.

Cmdr. Hanson, a jet carrier pilot, has during his naval career worked with missionaries all over the world to establish the Navy's people - to people program, Project Handclasp.

He is naval science instructor in the Navy's Junior ROTC unit at Bentley High School.

Recently he was elected as a commissioner to the next National General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church.

Politics Topic For Panel

The second in a series of panel discussions on making Christianity practical in everyday lives will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, in Ward United Presbyterian Church, Farmington Road and Six Mile, Livonia.

The topic will be "A Christian in Politics."

Participants will include Daniel B. Hess, attorney for the Michigan Federation of Young Republicans; Paul B. Henry, Calvin College professor of political science; and Dr. Stephen Monsma, professor of political science at Calvin and former Democratic candidate for State Senate.

All interested are invited to attend.
