In Plymouth Area

New Mormon Branch One of the fastest-growing denominations in Michigan is moving loward establishment of a new church, with yet another congregation also has been on proparing to set down roots in the near future. The denomination is the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, also known as the Mormon church. The new congregation is breaking off from the Livonia Ward, established only nine, years ago, and will be established with the privileges. "Occupancy would be longer. Latter, indicated William E. Hanson of Plymouth, Personal in the Garden City area. "WIENACONGREGATION greated with the prevaled by otherwhen the Garden City area. "WIENACONGREGATION gress on the Garden City area. "WIENACONGREGATION gress on the Control of Jesus Christ of keep everyone busy, and we believe religions should be more than matter of attending church on Sunday. "There are 275 jobs in headed by manch the origination of the original content of the membership with the tradition has been to split geographically when a congregation becomes a great deal larger than that." WORTHYLILLE Dranch of the new branch, to the congregation and support of the propagation of the new branch, to the propagation of the tending church on Sunday.

"There are 275 jobs necessary in the operation of a branch church. So the tradition has been to split geographically when a congregation becomes a great deal larger than that."

Hanson heads some 120 Plymouth and Northville residents who actually separated from the Livonia congregation last March.

The group has been meeting separately since then, he said, but using the Livonia building at 31450 Six Mile.

"Now we're looking for building in our own area to use." he said, "and after we move out, another group probably will be formed from the Livonia Ward, which still has over 600 members."
