

Qualman-Aldrich Rites Held

The chapel of Highland Park Baptist Church in Southfield was the setting for the recent wedding of Hope Qualman and Alfred Clausen Aldrich.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Aldrich of Gill Road, Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Qualman of Ann Arbor are parents of the bridegroom. Officiating for the late afternoon candlelight ceremony was the Rev. George H. Slavin.

THIS BRIDE, her attendants and her mother all made their own gowns to carry out a pink color theme for the wedding.

Winter white luteson fashioned the bridal gown. The bride designed both the gown and the floor-length candlelight veil. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and baby's breath.

The attendants' gowns were in shades of dusty rose and mauve, and they carried bouquets of baby's breath and dried flowers that had been made by the bride.

Mrs. L.J. Hankamp of Saline was matron of honor and the maid of honor was Keri Lynn Aldrich, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were another sister, Gale Aldrich, and Mary Ann Thome of Kalamazoo, Pamela Reynolds of Muskegon and Mrs. J.W. Qualman of Chicago.

THE BRIDEGROOM and his attendants were Prince Edward tuxedos. His brother, J.W. Qualman of Chicago, was best man. Groomsmen were Howard E. Aldrich, brother of the bride, Philip Ditto of Birmingham, Barry Garabedian of Massachusetts and L. James Hankamp of Saline.

Mrs. Aldrich's gown was deep rose pink, and Mrs. Qualman was in light pink. Both wore wrist corsages made by the bride.

Mrs. Earl Hebre, aunt of the bride, acted as honorary hostess for the Farmington Community Center reception following the ceremony.

The newlyweds went to Boston for a week's honeymoon and are living in Farmington. The new Mrs. Qualman is a teacher in Farmington public schools and her husband is a unit manager for Beaumont Hospital.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Glismann of Fresno, Calif., announce the engagement of their daughter, Gerri, to Alex M. Joncas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Joncas of Redford Township. The bride-elect is a student at Weber State College in Ogden, Utah. Her fiancé graduated from Northern Michigan University and teaches at Clearfield High School in Clearfield, Utah. They plan to be married Feb. 11 in the Logan Temple in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dryden of Rayburn Avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen Sue, to Keith Michael Langham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Langham of Winona Court, Westland. Both are 1969 graduates of Bentley High School and students at Michigan State University. They plan to marry Aug. 11.

MRS. JOHN A. TOWART
(Pamela Sue Pietila)

Pamela Pietila Is New Bride

Pamela Sue Pietila, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pietila of Janice Court, Garden City, became the bride of John A. Towart in a candlelight ceremony Nov. 5 in Garden City Presbyterian Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Ian Towart, of Detroit and Mrs. Betty Towart, of Tampa. The Rev. Robert Rives officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line silhouette gown of white velvet. Velvet ribbon and Venice lace accented the empire waist, high collar and cuffs, and lace edged the sweeping mantilla train. She carried a cascade of carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Barbara Evans of Garden City was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Judith Pietila of Plymouth, sister-in-law of the bride, Deborah Shively of Garden City and Linda Mazzoni of Plymouth.

Their peasant-style gowns had dark blue velvet bodices and light blue chiffon sleeves and skirts, and they carried colonial candles in holders trimmed with blue and white mums and blue ribbons.

John Bohr of Westland was best man, and ushers were Bruce Towart of Westland, brother of the bridegroom, Keith Pietila of Plymouth, brother of the bride, and Greg Serrey of Garden City.

The reception was held in the Hawthorne Valley Country Club, with 200 guests attending.

The couple honeymooned in New York before leaving for Europe, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Army.

MRS. ORVILLE H. LANE III
(Linda Fay Peppers)

Linda Peppers, Orville Lane Wed

Linda Fay Peppers and Orville H. Lane III were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Saturday, Dec. 4, in St. Andrew United Methodist Church, Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Pipok of Redford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Harvey Lane Jr. of Detroit are the bridegroom's parents.

A dinner reception in the church hall followed the ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S GOWN was white velvet with seed pearl trim, and a matching velvet crown held her veil. Her flowers were orchids and stephanotis.

Her only attendant was her aunt, Bonnie Pipok of White Cloud, Minn. Her red velvet gown had an ivory crepe bodice trimmed in velvet and lace. She carried pink carnations and holly.

Douglas Shrive of Detroit was best man and the ushers were Charles Gugins of Detroit and Terrance Gilbert of Farmington.

ALL THE MEN wore gray Prince Edward tuxedos with black velvet trim and pink shirts.

Mrs. Pipok wore a peppermint green lace gown and Mrs. Lane was in orchid chiffon.

Dorothy Norred of Livonia was soloist for the wedding. The couple will live in Westland.

Miss Decina Is Dec. 4 Bride

Florinda Decina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Decina of Cardwell Avenue in Livonia, became the bride of Gary Pearson in a Dec. 4 ceremony in Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church in Dearborn Heights.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Pearson of Dearborn Heights.

The new Mrs. Pearson was born in Italy and is a 1967 graduate of Franklin High School. She is employed as a secretary by National Bank of Detroit.

Her husband, a 1965 graduate of St. Alphonsus High School in Dearborn, is a Ford Motor Co. employee.

After a West Indies honeymoon, they will live in Detroit.

3 Are Initiated Into Sorority

Three Livonia teachers—Dorothy Collins, Joan Congdon and Marguerite Klein—were initiated into Alpha Delta Kappa recently. They became members of Tau Chapter of Livonia.

The ceremony took place at a meeting of District II of the international honorary sorority for women at the Hillside Inn, Plymouth. The district chapter includes 18 chapters from the suburban area.

Chairman of the district is Eleanor Phail of Taylor and the secretary-treasurer is Lorraine Raymer of Dearborn Heights.
