AS TO "BLUFFING"

Do bluff and bluster get anything? E. W. Scripps, the successful newspaper publisher, insisted that he was naturally a man of modest, retiring disposition.

Yet, to the world, he presented unusual assurance and a willful, arbitrary, dominating disposition. He was pleased that he succeeded in fooling the world.

Late in life, he wrote: "One of the first things I learned was that large numbers of men could be fooled by brag and bluster; and that a loud voice and an assumption of superiority would serve to deceive, if not all men, a vast majority of them. In fact, I learned how to bluff, and I have practiced the art so continuously as to have caused the disposition of a bluffer to become second nature to me."

Scripta realized, of course, that bluff was not enough to insure success. He doubted that he possessed any other qualities in large measure than ordinary men. What did explain his ability to get ahead?

Sizing himself up, he noticed that he had one peculiarity; he was disinclined to reason about business matters. Instead he trusted and followed his instinct.

"Reason leads man astray in business," he said, "instinct rarely does."

"TRY IT YOURSELF MR. HUSE!"

You try doing the housework with a lot of cold, clammy water. You try feeling around waiting for water to heat—depending on furnace coils after furnace weather (do you know how much fuel they waste in the winter, too?)

DO HUSBANDS KNOW?

Husbands know what comfort there is in an ever-ready supply of hot water for having and the bath at any and all hours. But most husbands don't realize what such hot water means in running the home. Instant hot water for the dishes, for baby's bath, for the laundry, for hurrying cooking, for housecleaning, for the hundred and one things that are a part of every woman's busy day.

TRY IT YOURSELF—THEN YOU'LL KNOW WHAT A THRILL IS IN THIS
