

Becomes Bride Of Farmington Man

MRS. DANIEL WEBSTER GOODENOUGH

Mr. and Mrs. Luman W. Goodenough, of Long Acres, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Eleanor Goodenough, and her fiancé, W. John Spicer, of Detroit, returned to Farmington by motor Friday after having attended the wedding of their son, Daniel Webster Goodenough and Miss Margaret Erwin Brooks, at Princeton University Chapel the previous Wednesday.

Mr. Goodenough and his bride were in Farmington this week en route to California on their wedding trip. They will return east in the fall and will live at Cambridge, Mass., Mr. Goodenough planning to enter Harvard law school. He received his bachelor's degree from Princeton the day before his wedding.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Goodenough wore aqua-marine crepe and lace trimmed with soft brown fur and a hat of lace. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The bride chose a beautiful Italian silver-embroidered satin gown and a long voluminous veil of Brittany lace.

BIBLE DRAMA ON BELLEVUE ISLAND AT LAKE ORION

A rare treat is in store for those who love Bible drama services, in the coming of Dr. Ralph Claggett and his cast of players to the auditorium on Bellevue Island Lake Orion Sunday July 1st. At 8 P. M. Dr. Claggett will present the great Bible drama, "The Half of My Good", portraying the character of Zechariah and the change wrought in his life after he met Jesus. Mrs. Claggett plays the part of Zechariah's wife. Dr. Claggett is both a writer of plays and a director. This play is considered one of his best and has become one of the most popular given in Detroit in recent years.

Preceding the drama the famous choir of Trinity M. E. church, of Highland Park will render a sacred concert. At 6:30 P. M. the Glee Union will be held at Bellevue dock on the east side of the island. Come to the dock service and remain for this splendid evening program in the auditorium.
