Earl Phillips Seeking Commissioner's Office

Earl L. Phillips, candidate for the Republican nomination for one of the two offices of Circuit Court Commissioner to be filled at the fall election, has been a practicing attorney in Oakland County for 15 years and has had experience in the office which he seeks.

Supporters of Mr. Phillips say he is a man of good judgment, experience and that his record entitles him to nomination and election.

ERROR IS CORRECTED
Archib Leonard will speak at Salem Evangelical church Sunday, September 9. It was erroneously reported last week that he would speak last Sunday. Mr. Leonard will speak on "The Church and Civic Duties." The public is invited to attend.

BUSINESS CHANGE
Turner & Clark, coal dealers at Farmington Junction for the past eight years, have dissolved partnership and the business has been reorganized. After September 1 it will be known as the Clark Coal Co., with John Clark as the owner.

Fred Stammen will manage the business.
