parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Rosengren of Auburndale Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Edwards Jr. of Columbia are the bridegroom's parents.

OFFICIATING for the ceremony was the bride's uncle, Dr. Stuart R. Westerlund of Toledo, and the bride's father gave her in marriage. Flutist Sharon Foster was soloist.

The bride wore a peasant-style gown of pale yellow imported crocheted eyelet. Her headpiece was a crown of daisies, and she carried a single fuji mum.

Darryl McGee of Ypsilanti, the bride's only attendant, wore a pale green dotted swiss peasant gown and carried a single yellow mum. Mrs. Richard Stankey made both dresses, and Mrs. Edward Liendorf fashioned the bridal headpiece.

RICHARD EDWARDS of Columbia was best man for his brother.

The reception was held in the Chicago Road House. Both mothers wore coral shades. Mrs. Rosengren's dress a deep coral brocade knit and Mrs. Edwards' light coral silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wednielski were host and hostess for the reception. Lori Wednielski served at the punch bowl and Susan Dotseth attended the bridal book.

The couple honeymooned in Chicago.

THE NEW MRS. EDWARDS, who graduated from Plymouth High School and attended Western Michigan University, met her husband in Germany where he was serving in the U.S. Army with her brother, H. John Rosengren.

Her husband is a 1967 graduate of the University of South Carolina and has had four years military service, including 18 months in Vietnam. He plans to return to the university to work toward a master's degree in international studies.

MRS. SCOTT C. BALDWIN (Nancy Therese Holmes)

Baldwins Live In East Lansing

Mr. and Mrs. Scott C. Baldwin are living in East Lansing and continuing their studies at Michigan State University following their recent marriage in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Muskegon.

The bride is the former Nancy Therese Holmes, daughter of Mrs. Alfred D. Holmes of Muskegon and the late Mr. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baldwin of Minton Avenue, Livonia, are the bridegroom's parents.

Three sisters attending her were gold chiffon and crepe pants suits and carried fall flowers.

Barbara D. Holmes was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Marcia C. Holmes and Pauline A. Holmes.

Craig E. Anderson of Port Huron was best man. The ushers were Richard P. Baldwin of Livonia and Thomas R. Holmes of Muskegon, brothers of the bride.

A RECEPTION for 125 guests in the Lithuanian Club in Muskegon followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Baldwin is majoring in elementary education at Michigan State and her husband is studying fisheries and wild life.

Candle Is Symbol

Diana Lynn-Krenz and David Thomas Forth lighted a single candle to symbolize their union in marriage after exchanging rings and vows in a ceremony Nov. 26.

St. Paul Lutheran Church of Coffeyville, Kan., was the setting for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Forth of Farmington are the bridegroom's parents. The bride is the daughter of Leo Krenz Jr. of Delaware, Okla., and Mrs. C. J. Kent of Charlotte, N.C.

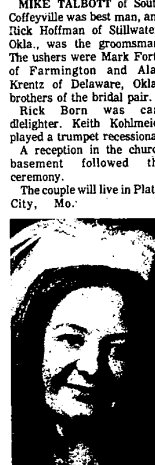

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line gown of chantilly lace and taffeta. A lace and pearl crown held her fingertip illusion veil, and she carried a nosegay of bronze and yellow mums with bittersweet.

Louise Storm of Coffeyville, as maid of honor, wore a green velvet gown and the bridesmaid, Marcela Harden of Coffeyville, wore gold velvet. Both carried bronze and yellow mums and bittersweet.

MIKE TALBOTT of South Coffeyville was best man, and Rick Hoffman of Stillwater, Okla., was the groomsmen. The ushers were Mark Forth of Farmington and Alan Krenz of Delaware, Okla., brothers of the bride.

Rick Born was candlelighter. Keith Kohlmeier played a trumpet recessional. A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony.

The couple will live in Platte City, Mo.

Donna Bush Is Bride

Donna Jean Bush was given in marriage by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Bush III, 4000 Robinwood Avenue, Farmington, when she became the bride of Larry Keith McDonald Oct. 23.

The double-ring ceremony took place in the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington with the Rev. George Ramsey officiating. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald of Marblehead Avenue, Farmington.

IVORY SATIPEAU fashioned the bride's Spanish style gown. With it she wore a lace mantilla and carried a bouquet of miniature gardenias, statice and stephanotis.

Her attendants wore apricot crepe gowns and carried dried floral arrangements in fall orange shades.

Megs Neipoth was honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Joanie Cheyne, Christine O'Bierne and Nancy Bush. Kim Williams was junior bridesmaid.

Dave Bush served as best man and the guests were seated by Roger Cheyne, Bob Baldwin and Rick Williams, ushers, and David McDonald, junior usher.

Mrs. Bush chose a pink gown for the occasion, and Mr. McDonald was in turquoise. Both had orchid corsages.

AFTER A RECEPTION in the Farmington VFW Hall, the newlyweds went to the Pocono Mountains for their honeymoon.

The new Mrs. McDonald has an associate degree from Oakland Community College and is employed as a medical secretary by the Medical X-Ray Clinic in Livonia.

Her husband is a University of Michigan senior in mechanical engineering and employed as an engineer by Massey-Ferguson.
