HAZELLE, BEAUTY EXPERT, WRITES FOR ENTERPRISE

No longer will it be necessary for the women of Farmington to resort to Hollywood and other sources for advice on their beauty problems. In fact it is very probable that Farmington itself will become an oracle of beauty provided the wisdom of Hazelle is released to frequent warm baths.

Apply your cleansing cream over the entire surface of your face and neck, and allow it to remain for a few minutes. Remove with a soft piece of cloth or cleansing sponge, wash your face in cold water. Never bathe excepted for blackheads. Use no soap. Since the women of Farmington the advantages of her wide experience have prompted Hazelle to resume her work as beauty authority, but unlike many beauty authorities, without any connection with commercial or advertising organizations.

Beginning in this issue, Hazelle will write for the Farmington Enterprise a series of articles entitled "Beauty Hints." Each week Hazelle will devote her column to a different aspect of beauty, with not only the intention of giving helpful suggestions to her readers, but also with the hope of encouraging women to take advantage of her offer to answer any questions which her writing may stimulate.

The Farmington Enterprise is confident that its readers will avail themselves of Hazelle's vast information on the subject beauty.

"My Maryland" is a stirring and romantic story of Civil War days dealing with the incident of Barbare Fréchette waving the Union Flag in the faces of the Confederate troops. Rombert is responsible for the lovely melodies in this show, and the music ranks along with that of his other compositions, "Student Prince" and "Blood-Sum Time" for its beauty.

"ROSE MARIE" HELD SECOND WEEK; "MY MARYLAND" NEXT

Opera Under the Stars in holding over the musical show "Rose Marie" for a second week automatically moves the date of the other productions to a week later.

"My Maryland" will open this coming Saturday, June 29. This is a very appropriate date in one respect as this show is definitely of patriotic nature and July 4th independence day comes on Thursday of this production's week engagement.
