

Harrison Scalps Farmington For First Win

By TOM DONOGHUE
Sports Editor

Harrison scored the opening basket against cross-town rival Farmington and never fell behind en route to its first basketball win of the season, 67-59.

Harrison lost its first three games against North Farmington, Oak Park and Waterford, but outshot and out-rebounded the Falcons to capture victory number one.

Ed Frankel of Harrison scored the first basket and Farmington's Dan Lekovish came back with a Falcon score, however Harrison went up 8-5 midway through the first quarter.

A three-point play by Hawk Jeff Sieloff put Harrison up 12-5, but Farmington's Lekovish came back with a three-point play of his own. Lekovish scored with five seconds remaining in the quarter to put Farmington down by one, but Jim Mason of Harrison concluded first quarter scoring on a toss from half court at the buzzer to put the Hawks up, 18-15.

Farmington came close to Harrison several times within one point, yet the Falcons couldn't put the ball in for a score and Harrison led at the half, 28-23.

SIELOFF and Mason opened the scoring for Harrison the second half, and the Hawks held a 38-33 lead midway through the third quarter.

Farmington started momentum late in the quarter but the Falcons couldn't put the ball in the hoop and Harrison led at the end of three quarters, 42-36.

Farmington got to within five points twice during the fourth quarter yet the Falcons just couldn't get it all together and Mason continued scoring for Harrison and with 1:38 remaining, Harrison led, 60-59, and was well on its way to a Bentley court at 7 p.m. Monday.
