New Childbirth Series Begins In Plymouth

A new series of six classes for expectant parents will begin in Plymouth on Dec. 27. Interested couples may contact Mrs. Alan Woodworth. The classes are presented regularly by the Lamaze Childbirth Preparation Association, with registered nurses as instructors. Films of actual birth experiences are included, along with lectures explaining development of the baby, labor and delivery, exercises and breathing techniques. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. (Jerry) Guilfoyle of Ingram Street, Livonia, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Nov. 28 at a dinner given for them by friends. They were also honored during services in St. Andrew Episcopal Church, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Guilfoyle have two children, Altran Thomas G. Guilfoyle Jr., who is stationed at Whiteman Air Force Base, Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Thomas A. (Jeanne) Daniel of Livonia. They have two granddaughters, Michele and Kristin Daniel.

Garin's Here

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ellis of Farmington announce the birth of their second son, Garin Howard, on Nov. 21 in St. Mary Hospital in Livonia. Mrs. Ellis is the former Carol Balseley. Garin and his brother Drew have two grandmothers, Mrs. Beverly Balseley and Mrs. Clyde Nichols, both of Farmington.

Pictures for wedding and engagement announcements must be mailed or brought to the office of The Observer Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia, 48156. Forms to supply the necessary information also may be obtained there. Pictures should be black and white and clear, and wedding pictures must be of the bride alone. Our picture-printing charge is $2.50 for engagement and one-column wedding pictures, and $5 for two-column wedding pictures. Checks should be made out to The Observer Newspapers. Pictures can be mailed back only if an addressed and stamped envelope is supplied. They also may be picked up at the office at 36251 Schoolcraft after publication. There is no charge for wedding or engagement announcement with no picture. It is not possible to inform you exactly when the announcement will be printed. Extra copies of the paper in which it appears must be ordered after publication through our Circulation Department.
