The Coming Year

May it bring to your vision happy views of rich promises, some of which may be filled each day. We appreciate your trade given us in 1935 and will feel fortunate if we can serve you in the New Year.

"It's a Pleasure to Serve You"

Merry Christmas

Gifts are on their way, carried on the wings of friendship and love... Wreaths are hung and candles are lighted... Business doors will swing shut and mankind will turn homeward for gaiety, happiness, peace...
We pause... to thank all for their patronage so generously bestowed this year. Every member of this firm joins in to extend joyous greetings of the season, wishing you and yours, "Merry Christmas."

THE FAMILY REUNION

By ANNE CAMPBELL

THE family reunion will be held again this year.
Once more we will renew the mellow friendships, tried and dear.
Almost a hundred years ago, this homestead was a dream.
A plan told in the candlelight that made young glances gleam.

If these brick walls could speak, they'd tell a tale of love grown old;
A cycle of warm hearts that blessed its hospitable fold.
A hundred years, a hundred souls that gather once again To testify to fondling goils, and happy wives and men.

The family reunion! Heaven throws blue skies above!
The day is touched with gold that is so round about with love.
And for each guest assembled here, there are too many more That are so near and yet so near, upon a trackless shore.

God bless the family! Make strong its deep, abiding ties.
Love that is tended keeps the warmth and beauty that we prize.

And even sunset skies are red with cheer in winter weather.
When good friends gather, comforted, around a fire together!

All the Cabinet

If you're a good "disintegrator" you will be able to pick out of this picture the salient features of each member of President Roosevelt's cabinet. A portrait of each of the nine men and one woman who make up that body that assists the President in running our government was used to make this photograph.
Secretary Perkins is the one woman; the men folks are Secretaries Elli, Morgenthau, Dera, Hoper, Ickes, Wallace and Swanson, Postmaster General Farley and Attorney General Cummings.

WEST FARMINGTON

The West Farmington school is giving a Christmas entertainment Friday evening, December 20.

Calvin Green spent a few days last week with his son, Frank Green in Detroit.

Mrs. Marie Walters and Mrs.
Edward Grimmer spent Thursday in Detroit.

Mrs. William Kurtz entertained the Willing Workers of West Farmington Cemetery Association, at a meeting at her home Thursday. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. A business meeting was held in the afternoon with a program furnished by Mrs. E. K.
Tamm, Miss Dorothea Kurtz and Mrs. Fredricks. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Charles Hal-sted's home January 9.

Mrs. and Mrs. Smith Green entertained the West Farmington Ancient Order of Gleaners at a meeting at their home Saturday evening.

Pupils from here who attend Walled Lake school will be home after Friday for a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Florence Bachelor was called on by her children Sunday at the home of her daughter Mrs.
Edward Bourque, the event being Mrs. Bachelor's eighty-third birthday anniversary.

Mrs. William Kurtz entertained five couples at a six o'clock dinner and a health talk at her home on Thirteen Mile road recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Graham are the parents of a baby boy born November 24.

Word has been received here that Mr. and Mrs. Russell Young are the parents of a baby boy.
Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were formerly from West Farmington. At present they are living in Pontiac.
Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman are the parents of a baby girl. Mrs. Wis-man is the former Miss Thelma Graham.

Mrs. Charles Gow who has been very ill is slowly improving in health.

Samuel Heller of Holdrege, Nebraska, visited relatives here. He was en route to his home from Washington, D. C., where he recently retired from his position in the treasury department after 16 years of service. He has reached the age of 70 years.

Raymond Seeley, James Charian, Roland Green, Raymond See and Lloyd Graham attended the "Future Farmers of America" held at the Walled Lake school. They have 15 new members this year.

West Farmington P. T. A. Hears Health Talk

Dr. J. D. Monroe, of the Michigan Board of Health, addressed 32 members of the West Farmington P. T. A. recently at the West Farmington school. He lectured on contagious diseases. Following the talk there was an informal discussion, when the health doctor answered the many questions asked by his audience.

Dr. Monroe expressed his appreciation for the cooperation given his department by the school and district.

A short musical program followed the meeting. Harold Rockey gave two violin solos, entitled "Song Without Words" and "Sunshine Polka." He was accompanied by Mrs. Kobman at the piano.

Mrs. Floyd Howard sang, "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life." She was accompanied by Harold Rockey on the violin and by Mrs. Kobman at the piano.

The evening's entertainment was concluded with the playing of games! Mrs. Gibson was chairman of the program committee.
