

Museum Features Durer, Picasso

During the holiday season, the Detroit Institute of Arts offers a 101-gallery package of attractions and events.

In the south wing lobby, a new 10-minute film introduction to the museum is featured.

IN THE SPECIAL exhibitions, both past and present are evident. Sixteenth century masterworks by Albrecht Durer and the colors, textures and forms of the 22nd exhibition for Michigan-artist-craftsmen are found in the south wing.

Prints and drawings by Picasso salute the world's most famous living artists on his 90th birthday in the main building.

Children of all ages enjoy "Look-Touch-Learn," the multi-media show that appeals to all the senses.

THE STAIRS just off the Kresge Court lead to the underground museum, where paintings and photographs show popular taste in the museum's early years, beginning with 1883. Underground tours are 1:10 p.m., Tuesday through Friday.

The museum, including the Kresge Court cafe, is open Tuesday through Sunday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and admission is free.

Casting Call

Cast tryouts for the Southfield Community Players' production of "The Emperor's New Clothes" will be held in Levy Junior High School, Nine Mile between Telegraph and Beech, on Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 5 and 6. Auditions will begin in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

Twelve speaking parts plus an open number of extras are required for the production. Persons applying must be 18 years of age, and or graduated from high school.

The play is scheduled for performances in Lederle Junior High School on Feb. 24 and 25 and in Birney Junior High School on March 2 and 3.

In addition, actors who audition must be available for an unscheduled benefit at Children's Hospital, plus two benefits the players have pledged to the Detroit Parks and Recreation Dept.

Amusements

SUSAN LATHAM of Farmington is playing the part of Hansel in the Greenfield Village Players presentation of "Hansel and Gretel." Performances are at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. Dec. 29, 30 and 31. The final show will be at 2:30 p.m. Jan. 2. All performances are in the Henry Ford Museum Theater, Dearborn.

Bird Count Is Jan. 2

The Detroit Audubon Society will conduct its annual Christmas bird count on Sunday, Jan. 2, from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Those taking part will meet at the Cranbrook Nature Center. Each person will be assigned to a group with a particular territory to cover.

To get to the center, take the road into Cranbrook from Lone Pine Road between Woodward and Telegraph. Yellow Audubon signs will direct participants to the center.

All over North America, the Christmas bird counts will take place. Detroit's official count will be sent to the national society, and the total count of the 700 or so groups participating is published in a paperback the following summer. Everyone who takes part in the count and contributes a dollar to help defray expenses receives a copy.

Participants are advised to dress warmly, and to take binoculars and a sack lunch to eat in the car at noon.

Singletons Will Meet Jan. 6

The Dearborn-Livonia Singletons will hold their next dinner social beginning at 6:30 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 6, in Master's, Seven Mile and Middle Belt, Livonia. Membership is for those between the ages of 25 and 45.
