The city has already marked out the old village area with signs on Shiawassee and Farmington Rds. reading "Entering Old Village."

The boundary begins on the north side of Shiawassee and extends west to Gill, south on Gill to Cortland and then across to Cass and north on Cass to State Street and east to Farmington Rd.

The boundary line then proceeds up Farmington Rd.

The boundary line then proceeds up Farmington Rd.

To Grand River and east on Grand River to School where the line cuts north to intersect with Shiawassee.

A number of homes along Shiawassee date back to the Si30s and 1830s. The Carpenter House built in 1821 is still occupied.

House built in 1824 is sun occupied.

The committee members worked intensively on its research during 1970 and 1971, completing the project this month when the application was sent to Lansing.

GILSON WAS hired by the city to do the research but has given his fee back to the city to purchase a historical display case. It is located in the city hall lobby near the police desk.

The showcase will include
