

A Ford Ride

If you have not driven a new 1936 Ford Car, you have a thrill coming. For ease of driving, smoothness of riding, and genuine engineering dependability the 1936 Ford can not be matched.

The 1936 Ford is beautiful. More than that, it is safe. Behind it are years of skillful experience at producing a car whose reputation is world-wide.

Yet this car may be purchased for $25 a month, plus the original down payment. The Universal Credit Corporation has made such a plan possible. Come in, see the 1936 Ford, and ask us about the $25 a month plan.

To the Editor:
Scouting is learning by doing. It provides a boy with happy and healthful outlets for his superabundant energies. It supplies worthwhile activities for his out-of-school hours. It gives him something he likes to do and something worth doing. It offers incentive for progress and makes achievement desirable in the boy's own life. It is positive, constructive, all "doing," and no "doodling." It furnishes suitable leadership under which are developed the boy's latent powers, capacities and tastes. It makes use of universal, elemental, boy-instructive, gang, loyalty, group worship, pride of physical prowess, love of adventure and the great outdoors. The method of Scouting is not abstract book pedagogy. It is sound, vital, and practical.

This has been a period of discouragement, of economic hardship for many, but the Scout program, because of the intelligent devotion of our volunteer leaders and the many benefactions of public-spirited men and women, has gone forward as never before.

Four years ago a plan was set up called the Ten Year Program, in which the Boy Scouts of America have set themselves to accomplish a difficult task, but a worthy task—one of every four new male citizens to be a cause Scout-trained man.

A very worthy cause for satisfaction is the splendid public support that is being given to Scouting in the United States.

Farmington should be proud of its many experienced leaders. Every boy in the community can have, if he wishes, the best instruction in military training, first aid, both personal and public health, signaling, weather, cooking and map reading. These advantages are given him by the best experienced men we can find.

Yours truly,
A SCOUT ADMIRER.

To the Editor:

Within the last few years there has been seen upon the streets of our city and as duty called him into our homes one whose business it was to cure disease, to relieve pain and to give cheer and comfort to the afflicted. Quiet, confident, Dr. Thomas practiced the healing art with a goodly measure of success. Not only that but more than once he has relieved the worry and anxiety of his patients by financial aid, which enabled them to pay pressing hospital bills. This, too, when he knew the recipients of his kindness would never be able to repay him. Kind, generous, capable and willing to go day or night, he did not spare himself but answered the call of the sick and afflicted.

To him the final summons has come and now death, the "only immortal that treats us all alike, whose pity and whose peace and whose refuge are for all, the prince and the pauper, the rich and the poor, the loved and the unloved, has called him to its rest and peace."

Yours truly,
One Who Will Miss Him.
