AFS Students Entertain. Are Entertained

MANY OF THE visiting students entertained at talent shows, and those hosted by Churchill High School were no exception. Above is Antonio S. Flores, who hails from the Philippines, playing a melodeon. Below, Leena Nummoli models a Finnish costume. Antonio was one of three young men staying with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munroe of Westland, and Miss Nummoli was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lavern

m.memos

For the past four years, I have been referred to in this column by various names, the latest being Miss 15, sophomore and Daughter No. 2. And my opinion has been placed in this column many times without my consent (always a bit distorted, of course.)

And many people ask me questions, such as "How was the rummage sale?" or "How's that cat of yours that I read about in the paper?"

Well, contrary to popular belief, I have a name,

Well contrary to popular belief, I have a name, Barb.
And I have opinions never put in this column, such as an opinion of my Mom, who writes this regularly. And now I'm going to let all the people ask her their questions about the column. My, but revenge is sweet!
My mom's pretty average as far as statistics go, I guess. She gets in her quota of explosions every week. She is home when you don't want her and gone when you need her, so that's about average too, I guess.

But unlike some mothers, she's even nice every now and then—of course, it's easier to be nice with terrific kids like us.
But even without excuses like that, I think my mom's pretty good (for her generation).

I believe I'd think twice before trading her. Only twice, of course. No more.

-Barb Miller

AMONG THE AFS students here for the past five days was this group enjoying a picnic at the Livonia Family Y. Seated on the park bench are Heidi Engler of Germany, who was bench are Held Engler of Germany, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. DeVic; Patricio Negrete of Chili, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dahler; Anita Merlitschek Switzerland, guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Harp; and Lachlan Mackay of New Zealand, guest of from the control of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart. In the back roy or, and whis, hoeld deeper an are, from left, Deanne Hay of South Africa, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Roesch; Paivi Vanesmaa of Finland, who spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Eddy; and Klaus Piette of Germany, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Stewart. Host families represent Bentley High School AFS Chapter.

SELECT YOURS

Some 120 AFS students representing 63 countries were in Observerland over the weekend as guests of local families. Three Livonia high schools, Churchill, Clarenceville and Bentley were among Detroit area schools hosting them in weekend activities which included swim parties, talent shows and picnics. Monday and Tuesday, the 700 students in the area met at Cranbrook School to talk over their impressions of their past year in the U.S. and today they are setting out from Metropoli-tan Airport for the trip home again. Here are a few of the travelers in our area for the week-(Observer photos by Harry Mauthe)

pothight on Women

Bathing Caps Are Off — And On Again

Women swimmers in elsewhere. Seemaled the pool found that he no-cap policy did not make a difference in the frequency with which they had to clean the screen the water Farmington Glen Aquatic Club began making waves about wearing clean heirs, the club decided to cape to the club decided to allow the cape to the club decided to cape to the cape

"But we found that we were constantly making judgements about what was sinking judgements. So the next step was to liberate all the women of the often uncomfortable caps.

Though it might be expected that the hair would cause a Continued on Page 3D

FOR A SHORT WHILE, women and men swam free without bathing caps in the Farming-ton Glen Aquatic Club. But complaints about hair in the water put the caps back on the too. (Observer photo by Bob

GA 7-1400 or 937-1144 Tuesday and Saturday 9 to 6