Musical Comedy Comes To Redford Theatre

Starting them from close to the top of the ladder of film success, Twentieth Century-Fox's new and brilliant singalong musical hit, "You Can't Have Everything," which opens a four-day engagement at the Redford Theatre Saturday, presents two talented artists already known to millions of fans all over the nation.

Featured in the cast supporting Alice Faye, the Ritz Brothers and Don Ameche, the new screen pair are Louise Hovick and Rubino, and his violin. Introducing a new personality to the screen, Miss Hovick will make her first appearance as a dramatic actress and comedienne in Darryl F. Zanuck's latest musical, "For Rubino, it will be an additional medium for presenting his inimitable violin style.

Added to the sparkling musical comedy bill, the double feature show starting Saturday will also present "Wife, Doctor and Nurse," a surprising solution to the eternal triangle problem, starring Warner Baxter, Loretta Young and Virginia Bruce.

Mrs. Otis Jensen attended a luncheon at the Redford Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koss and children June and Shirley were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tufts of Pontiac Lake.

Charles Miller, William Gregor, Roy Smith and Maurice Seebaldt are on a hunting trip to Iron Mountain.

Clyde and Mrs. Adams spent Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week in Anchorville as the guests of Mrs. Adams' sister, Mrs. Hearst.

Norwest Shows Gay Comedy

"Topper" the year's gayest comedy featuring Constance Bennett and Cary Grant starts a three-day engagement at the Norwest Theatre beginning Sunday, November 21.

Epworth League Notes

(Bob Snyder, Editor)

Twelve Epworth League members attended the opening of the rally held in Dexter, Friday evening. All reported that they enjoyed a very interesting evening. Three of the number, Doug Parker, Ed Barrows, and Jim Everly, remained for the week end to attend all meetings of the rally.

At the Sunday evening meeting Carl Smith as leader gave a talk on the topic "Prayer." Norman Barons, sr., sang a song entitled "Discipleship."

Next Sunday evening, Miss Chambers, recently returned from China will speak to the group. Her talk will be of interest to all who attend. It is hoped a large number will turn out for this meeting.

November 23 is the date set for the League roller skating party at Kego Harbor. Lots of fun is in store for everyone, so let's go.

Seventeen members took the league pledge Sunday evening and received their membership cards for 1938.

Comedy Hit Coming To Norwest Theatre

The smash hit "Captain Blood," starring Errol Flynn and Olivia De Havilland comes to the Norwest Theatre Saturday as one of the many excellent pictures scheduled to open during this and next week. Also showing with this thrilling saga of the seas is "Midnight Madonna," starring Warren William.

Opening a three-day engagement at the Norwest Sunday is the comedy scream "Topper," acknowledged as the most hilarious picture yet released this year. Amazing new camera tricks, developed by screen magicians for the production blaze a new trail in photo-
