

Carole Kovacs Is Wed In Plymouth

Carole Ann Kovacs became the bride of James Henry Kubaiko in a morning ceremony Saturday, Aug. 7, in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church in Plymouth.

The Rev. Francis Byrne heard the couple's vows, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

SANDRA KOVACS, the bride's sister-in-law, was her matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Marilyn Kubaiko, sister of the bridegroom, Nancy Edwards and Sandra Barham.

David Kubaiko was best man for his brother, and the guests were seated by Jack Houser, John Edwards, Wayne Wegner, John Smith and Gabriel Kovacs Jr., brother of the bride.

THE COUPLE greeted 200 guests at a reception in Greenfield's Restaurant in Birmingham before leaving on a honeymoon to Acapulco. They will make their home in Plymouth. The new Mrs. Kubaiko is a graduate of Bentley High School and attended Schoolcraft Community College. Her husband has a bachelor degree and a master's in special education from Eastern Michigan University.

Garden Ceremony Unite Wynnes

A garden setting was the scene of the marriage of Janise Carol Heston and Jack Carrol Wynne Jr.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Heston of Mullane Avenue in Farmington, formerly of Garden City. Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Wynne Sr. of Hennepe Street in Garden City are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Ralph Rideout officiated at the ceremony beneath a trellis of flowers and greenery in which the bride's father gave her in marriage.

TIERED OF ALLENCON lace fashioned the skirt of the bride's ante-bellum gown. An elbow-length veil of tiers of silk illusion was held by a spray of orange blossoms and seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade of carnations, stephanotis, baby's breath and ivy.

Wearing a gown with a maize and white flowered chiffon skirt and white organza bodice was the bridegroom's sister, Patricia Wynne, maid of honor.

CARRYING open ruffled parasols with daisy bouquets, the bridesmaids wore similar gowns in different colors. Sherri Petty of Garden City wore a turquoise gown and the bride's cousin, Judy Crone of Redford Township, wore green. The bridegroom's cousin, Michael Kindinger of Dallas, Tex., was the best man. Tim Sayre of Westland and Jerald Wynne, the bridegroom's brother, were ushers. They wore white double-breasted tuxedos with ruffled shirts and boutonniere matching the bridesmaids' dresses. The couple greeted 150 guests at a reception at the Farmington Community Center before leaving for Dallas where they will make their home.
