Scout News

At the Court of Honor held at the Baptist Church, Monday night, Troop 45 and 48 of Bond School were in keen competition for honors. Troop 48 again carried away the advancement trophy. The basis for comparison was the percentage of the troop membership making advancement during April.

John W. Edgar, Tom Rock and James Youngblood became second class Scouts; Jack Samuelson became a Star Scout, and Carl Smith completed his work for the Eagle award which he will receive June 10 at the Camporee Court of Honor.

Troop 45 received the new charter and was awarded the "Ten Year Program" award for prompt re-registration, gain in membership and 50 percent of more of old members re-registered. The troop also holds a high rating on the basis of subscriptions to Boys' Life, the Scout magazine.

Saturday's hike was enjoyed by seven members of Troop 45 and made possible some of the advancements for the Troop.

We think sufficient advancement was made in April to entitle the Troop to a Troop flag streamer, to be awarded at the Camporee. We would like to report some definite activity on the part of the Troop Committee. More assistance is needed to get a patrol ready to represent the Troop at the Camporee. A visit to the Redford pool will be postponed Friday by most of the Troop because the members are to take part in a program with the men of the Baptist Church at 7:30 Friday night.

Two members of the Troop already have brought in their registrations for Scout camp this summer. Prepare for the Camporee June 10, 11 and 12.

Gardening Helps To Ward Off Spring Fever

One way to fight off that annual attack of spring fever that blows in with the first few warm nights is to visualize a productive vegetable garden.

What does it take to feed a family which in Michigan has an average of between four and five persons? It seems to take about 3,100 pounds of fruits and vegetables for a years needs.

Can what you can and store enough usually stored in wide rows for horse cultivation, to provide most of the fresh vegetables used by a family," Mr. Bailey says.

Harley and Mrs. Walters and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. McCaskill spent Friday evening at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, near Pontiac, as the guests of Mrs. McCaskill's sister, Miss Dixie Rudberg.
