Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wiegand of Colfax welcomed the birth of a son, Charles William born recently at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia.

A brother, John K., welcomed little brother home from hospital. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Dolores Neubert of Westland. Maternal grandfather is Cleo Gaderby of Illinois; paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Wiegand of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Madias of Kibrecht Dr., Farmington, flew to Greece three weeks ago. This was Madias' gift to his wife on their 25th wedding anniversary.

They will visit Athens, Rhodes and the birthplace, Chios, where Madias was born.

home they have five children, a brother who is married and resides in California, Kathy and Nikki (twin sisters) who are seniors at Marygrove College; another sister, Marisa who also attends Marygrove and 13-year-old Annette, who will be entering Harrison High in the fall.

This second honeymoon will long be remembered by Mrs. Madias for 25 wonderful years with her husband (and their fine family).

MICHELLE Robinson, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson Jr. (the former Mary Ellen Weber), who reside on Larkspur, received a musical scholarship and acceptance at Camp Interglacier. She plays the string bass. Michelle attended Camp Interglacier from July 26 to Aug. 8.

Her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Weber, resides in Birmingham and her paternal grandparents moved from Farmington several years ago, and purchased a home in Rose City, Mich.

A graduation open house was given for Robin Newsom recently by her parents, the Robert Newsoms of Whittington St., at their home.

The main table's centerpiece was a big graduation cake.

There were 139 guests present. Robin received lovely gifts, money and cards. Out-of-town guests were relatives from Florida, Tennessee and Kentucky. Local guests were from Dearborn, Livonia, Redford, Detroit, Utica and the Farmington area. Fifteen year old Bobby (Robin's brother) was doorman for the guests.

MR. AND MRS. BOB HAMLIN and daughter Jennifer of Norbourne St. have been vacationing for two weeks in Seminole and North Palm Beach, Florida, with relatives.

Paul Mathys, son of the John Mathys of Rockwell St. was home on leave recently from Georgia where he is stationed in the Reserves 'til September when his tour of duty will end. Paul will then return to his job in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Barbara Houlihan of Barrington, Ill., was a guest at the home of her brother and family for a month on Rockwell St. and has now returned home from a delightful vacation.

Mrs. C. W. Everetts of Farmington and children Bill and Sue enjoyed a month's vacation in Washington D.C. where Sue had been living this past year. They also vacationed in Los Angeles before returning home to Farmington where they expect to live.

Francis took an early retirement from his job as an immigration inspector stationed at the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel.

They visited Florida and the Beverly Hills area and fell in love with the new subdivision and the whole place to had a lovely year around home constructed there. (Gulie is really Mrs. Langthorne's first name.)

A personal shower was given at the Danish Inn for Miss Shirley Jensen (future bride of Phillip Peko) by Mrs. Hanley Harrington of Battle Creek, formerly of Collingham. Table decorations were large hot pink paper roses on gift packages for each guest. A lovely salad and dessert luncheon was served the 12 guests.

Fifty members of the Farmington Senior Citizens Social Club enjoyed a scenic bus trip to Fisherman's Wharf for a delicious dinner at St. Clair Shores.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HOFFESS of Rockycrest enjoyed a unit dinner-dance at Roma Hall in East Detroit.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newsom of Whittington were guests. Bob and Bill both belong to the same union.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamlin of Elba St. and daughters Shelley and Karen enjoyed a three week vacation in panhandle country of Texas visiting Mrs. Hamlin's parents and the rest of the family. While there their children Ralph and Shelley took part in their Uncle Tom's wedding.

Mrs. Judy Newsom of Astor Dr. enjoyed a week's vacation at her parents' home at Burt Lake.

RECENTLY IN an issue of a Detroit paper, I know many people were pleased to see the picture of Mrs. Francis (Gulie) Langthorne, at their new home in Beverly Hills, Fla.

The Langthornes were residents of Farmington for several years on Orchard St. (that is the street directly to the rear of the A & P store not many newcomers know). Soon they moved to Redford in Ann Arbor where they lived before selling recently and moving to Florida.

MR. AND MRS. HARRY HAMLIN, former Farmingtonites, now of Utica, have been vacationing for two weeks in Georgia and Florida with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Christmas of Rockwell St. just returned from a three week vacation touring and sightseeing throughout the state of Florida. Son Danny and daughter Colene accompanied them while daughter 'Kitty' stayed at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Conkright of Gilman are now at home after a pleasant visit in Fairview, Mich., with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Jarski, formerly of 11 Mile Rd., now of Jupiter, Fla., were here recently for a week to attend the wedding of their eldest son Tony Jr. at Union Lake where he is living. The Jarski's daughters, Pam, Dania and son Eric also flew up for the occasion.
