Advertising is nothing more than a conversation between yourself and your merchant. He pays for it

A Buying Guide

Before you order a dinner in a restaurant, you consult the bill-of-fare. Before you take a long trip by motor-car, you pour over road maps. Before you start out on a shopping trip, you should consult the advertisements in The Enterprise. For the same reasons!

The advertising columns are a buying guide to you in the purchase of everything you need---Including amusements! A guide that saves your time and conserves your energy; that saves useless steps and guards against false ones that put S-T-R-E-T-C-H in family budgets.

The advertisements in this paper are so interesting, it is difficult to see how anyone could overlook them . . fail to profit by them. Just check with yourself and be sure that you are reading the advertisements regularly---the big ones and the little ones. It is time well spent . . . always.

The cooker is simple to use: Plug it into any electric outlet, and it will bake, roast, fry, steam and stew— at a cost of about 2c an hour. No matter what kind of kitchen stove you are using, you owe it to yourself to have one of these handy electric cookers. It will pay for itself many times over-in time-saving conven-ience, in enjoyment, in better meals. Before you realize it, you'll be using Dutch Susan for all your
