LOSEY CORNERS

Word was received Friday of the death of Mr. John Worth's father, who passed away suddenly in his home at Ann Arbor. Mr. Worth suffered a stroke last July but recovered and was in fair health apparently until a few minutes before his death.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spicer were hosts to a group of friends for a Sunday dinner. Mrs. Robert Fredericks was the guest of honor having been sponsor at the christening of little Catherine Christine, born Christmas night, 1938.

Easter lilies, tulips and other potted plants helped to carry out the spirit of Easter in the church service Sunday. The Ave Maria was beautifully played by Mr. Robert Dettoli, as a clarinet solo. Mr. Roberts won the Franko Goldman medal as the best player of the clarinet in a contest held a short time ago. A solo by Mrs. McCloud and special music by the choir were much enjoyed. Sunrise service and breakfast were well attended with a record attendance in church and Sunday school. All seats were filled and some were obliged to stand in the hall.
 Regular meeting of the Woman's Aid Tuesday at the chapel, 7:45 p. m. M. A. Wed. 12:30, potluck and program to follow, also at the chapel.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown us during our recent bereavement. Rev. E. W. Palmer for his comforting words and the Master of Ceremonies for their beautiful service.

Ten Day Spring Vacation Ends April 17
 Spring vacation for the students of Farmington High and Grammar Schools will end Monday morning April 17. Classes have been recessed since noon of Good Friday. The Spring calendar promises a heavy program of activity for the remaining months of the school year. The J-Prom and the Senior Prom will be highlights of the social affairs and the many graduation parties will round out the season. The athletic department which is at present caught in the lull between seasons will increase their schedule with the advent of warmer weather.

Spring Painting Hints for Housewives
 Spring breezes cause many women to scan household walls and get the urge to improve looks of the interior of a home with paint. Men may think of paint in terms of protecting house and buildings from weather damage, for a woman it usually is looks. For the homemaker seized with the spring urge to paint, several suggestions are offered by the extension service of Michigan State College.
 Preparation for the job and even consideration of the weather are necessary. Wall paint will not do unless it has a binder that stands up against wear from feet. Paint left over should be marked for future use.
 New unpainted wood requires very little sand paper but will remove building residues such as mortar and plaster.
 After a priming coat, nail holes and loose joints should be filled with putty. Woodwork should be dry. Chalky surfaces can be dusted off, but blistered areas need to be scraped or brushed with a wire brush. Varnished or enameled surfaces can be sandedpaper or scoured with steel wool.

 Brush selection affects the work. 2 1/2 or 4 inch flat brush is easiest for walls, ceilings and other large surfaces. Wood trim is covered more easily with a flat brush 2 to 3 1/2 inches in width. For round surfaces and shash trim it is easiest to use a special oval sash brush. Varnish brushes should be used for no other purpose.
 And the weather! Painting days should be dry, clear and bright. Dampness results in a poor painting job.
