4-6 In Memoriam

WRITTEN in memory of Lynn (Eldon) Kephart, allegedly killed by the Farmington Township police on Aug. 30, 1970, fervently missed by his widow Ruth and daughter Alina.

"MY DADDY'S IN HEAVEN"
By Ruth Kephart

Do policemen kill daddies all of the time?
Mommy, oh mommy, why did they take mine?
My daddy's in heaven, he's there I know
Cause, mommy, you often have told me it's so.
Daddy would hold me and we liked to play
But they took my daddy, they took him away
Oh mommy, oh mommy, it just isn't fair
They took my daddy, they just didn't care
How far is heaven, how far can it be
Cause daddy can't come home to be here with me.
Please Santa Claus, bring my daddy for Christmas sometime
Cause we miss our daddy, all of the time;
In dreams when my eyes I have closed oh so tight
My daddy comes home then to kiss me goodnight
I see him standing here by my door.
Oh mommy, I'm dreaming, just dreaming once more
Alina, sweet baby, please Alina don't cry
We'll see our daddy in the sweet bye and bye.
