WEST POINT PARK

Washed Nut

Legulation.

Phone 20

Nut Pea Slack

nonite tabernacle in Brightmoor

.... 8.75 .....7.75

.... 5.00

Farmington

GENUINE THIRD VEIN RED ASH

POCAHONTAS

Hard Coal. —Coke — Cannel Coal SAVE ON OUR FUEL BILLS With Storm Sash Combination Doors and

Farmington Lumber and Coal Co.

AT THE REDFORD THEATER

AUTOS BLAMED FOR NEARLY HALF

OF DEER DEATHS

tober, 17; November, eight and pecember, two ... Does were most nunerous among the deer found dead, numbering 35, compared with a total of 17 bucks, Eighteen or the dead were fawns, seven mules and 11 females. Sex of four was not determined.

Deer killed by violators included six fawns, three male and three fomale; four bucks, five dods and one of undetermined age and sex.

fences, and one fawn had been A new tohoggan slide in new location of the transfer of the tran

LOSEY CORNERS

Mr. Mansfiell, Janitor of Wilcox school, slipped on the face find the school yard and lacerated his hand.

About 90 young people turned out for the dance Friday evening. Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Dallas, Mr. and Mrs, Niven and Mr. Abobe were there to see that all had a good tine, and assift with the refreshments that we're served. Mrs. Taimi and Mrs. Miner spent Thursday of last week with their mother, Mrs. Robert Freacricks. Most of the day was spent sewing.

ericks. Most of the day was special sewing.

Mr. and Mrs. Brainer have closed their home for the remain-der of the winter, having gone to Washington to stay till April.

MEMORIES OF CHILDHOOD'
Shall, I see again that great pine tree
On the craggy rocks that hold back the sea.
A pine free back 'gainst the crimson glow
The sea in jts restless dbb and flow?

Will I hear again the see gull's cry
As it dips and soars in a cloudless sky.
Will the sound of the waves come back to me,
As they roll and toss on an angry sea?

Shall I build again in the shifting Forts and towers and castles grand?

Shall I kneel again at my mother's knee
And say the prayers she taught to me?

Oh, memories sweet, as we older grow, Are all that's left of the local

Scouting Beckons All Boys

On, memories sweet, as we older grow, are all that's left of the lost grow, are all that's left of left grow, and grow and fatters that left grow and fatters the lost grow and fatters grow and fatters the lost grow and fatters the lost grow and fatters the lost gr

-Everyone Rides a Bike in Bermuda

EVERYONE rides a bleyele in Bermuda. There are imore than 30,000 permanent residents of the slands and more than 17,000 bleyeles in use.

Each blike is registered and the owner must display his tiny license tags attached to the front lub. These tags are issued yearly, like automobile plates in the Stata. As thousands of Bermuda blikes look allke, especially to throings of visitors, the number of one's license tag provides the only sure means of identification. It is well to memorize it.

incovides the only sure measure intentification. It is well to memiorize it.

It is common in Bermuda to observe a mother articing to market, and the sure of the systions are quick to adopt the idea. To the beach, to tennis, a-tour-int they go . . . the roads are fine and More than 300 miles of Bermuda's winding roads paved with native toors have been recently remarks and the series and the series as the series a

