Best Seat in the House Americans in Rome can't get over the Isalian paradox of asking for the "best seat in the house" at any of Italy's leading motion pleture the gallery. It's the result of an old Roman custom going back to the days of the Caesars. When nobility spoke to the people, nobility spoke from a baleony looking down on the populace. When 'nobility watches from the baleony. This an 'orchestra seat," third or fourth row center is still the still be still the best in the house in America.

Esanans—an Oddity
Less than 70 years ago bananas were an oddity in the United States.
So unusual was the fruit that a bunch of bananas on exhibit at the Philadelphia centennial in 1875 attracted crowds of curiour, visitors.
Today, bananas are a familiar, item of American diet, imported into the country chiefly from Central Ameriica, Jamaica, Mexico, Cuba, and Colombia. In 1938, more than $5,000.000 stems of bananas were subped to the United States, the largest share coming from Central America.
