The Editor

Astounded!

Your big bold headline on Page 4A, 25 Aug. '71 issue really astounds me.

Besides being a meddling Birmingham resident what is Hepner's qualification to decide what is truth, justice and fair play?

This group is nothing but an old-fashioned vigilante mob which you, above all, should realize is an unauthorized committee of citizens organized in the absence of efficient

Also, who is going to see that big, mean Mrs. Kenny will be protected since Hepner feels he has to champion radical Vagnozzi?

This is a sign of the break-up of the township and the gross handling of Hepner's committee by your paper does not help.

Why did you feel that meddling by a resident of Birmingham was so im-portant to note in a headline?

portant to note in a neadline?

In conclusion, I am not a Bircher, much to your dismay, just a concerned citizen that is alarmed at the nose dive the township is in, and the outside influence of people not living here and the pressure groups being formed to control us.
