Fish Volunteers Call New Members

Fish, a world-wide Christian organization of people helping people, will get under way with train-ing sessions for volunteers in the Southfield and ing sessions for volunteers in the Southfield and Farmington areas.

Volunteers representing 15 churches within the boundaries of Eight to 14 Mile Roads, from Greenfield to Haggierty Roads, formed the nucleous of the new group which worked through the summer to begin operations this fall.

Those who wish to attend morning sessions of training will meet at North Congregation Chuych, Northwestern Highway, south of Lahser, in South-field, on Tuesday, Sept. 21 at 9 a.m. Evening sessions, at 8 p.m. will be held beginning Thursday, Sept. 23 at the North Farmington Baptist Church, on 13 Mile Road, between Orchard Lake and Farmington Roads, in Farmington. in Farmington.

Persons do not need to be a member of a Chris-tian Church, or any church, to become a volunteer in Fish. Requirements are only that you wish to be a good neighbor, and wish to become a part of a network of volunteers that can be called upon to give help when it is asked

The group takes it's name from the ancient Christian symbol.

A 24-hour telephone answering service is expected to go into operation on Oct. 1, which will accept calls of help.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY for William F. Ebert, director of the Livonia branch of the League-Goodwill, was part of a visit by handicapped clients to the Newburgh United Methodist Church recently. Youth fellowship members were hosts for the occasion, and magician Felix A. Lorenz J entertained the guests. Director Ebert (second from left) opened gifts with the help of Stephen Henry (left).
